

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT
UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE APPEALS BUREAU

HIEU P HUYNH
Claimant

APPEAL 20A-UI-00240-DB-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 09/22/19
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able to and Available for Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)e – Notice to Report
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(11) – Failure to Report
Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant/appellant filed an appeal from the November 8, 2019 (reference 05) unemployment insurance decision that found claimant was ineligible for unemployment benefits because he failed to report as directed. The claimant was properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on January 29, 2020. The claimant, Hieu Huynh, participated personally. CTS Language Link provided language interpretation services for the claimant. The administrative law judge took administrative notice of the claimant's unemployment insurance benefits records.

ISSUES:

Did the claimant file a timely appeal?

Is the claimant able to and available for work, and actively and earnestly seeking work?

Did the claimant fail to report as directed or have a good cause reason for his failure to do so?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: An unemployment insurance benefits decision dated November 8, 2019 (reference 05) was mailed to the claimant's correct address of record. He received the decision in the mail on an unknown date. The decision stated that an appeal must be filed by November 18, 2019. Claimant's administrative records establish that several unemployment insurance decisions have been mailed to the claimant. Claimant does not read the English language. Claimant sought the help of his daughter to translate the multiple decisions, including the November 8, 2019 (reference 05) decision. Claimant and his daughter had difficulty interpreting the multiple decisions that were mailed to him. Claimant's daughter misinterpreted the decision to the claimant and did not interpret the appeal deadline listed on the decision.

Claimant visited his local Iowa Workforce Development (“IWD”) office where an IWD representative assisted the claimant in printing off a screen from the NMRO database in order to assist the claimant in filing multiple appeals on December 4, 2019. See Appeal documents.

This November 8, 2019 (reference 05) decision stemmed from the claimant failing to report as directed for a fact-finding interview that was scheduled on November 6, 2019. The claimant’s administrative records do not indicate the purpose of the fact-finding interview. Claimant believes he received the notice but he does not read English so was unsure. He was using his daughter’s telephone number as a contact number because his telephone line was disconnected due to insufficient payment after he became unemployed. The claimant did not receive the voicemail message from the interviewer because it was left on his daughter’s voicemail and she did not tell him about the call.

For each week he has filed weekly-continued claims for benefits, the claimant was able to and available for work and he made adequate work searches. Claimant’s daughter was helping him file his weekly-continued claims online because he does not read English. He reported that he was not able to and available for work in error and his report that he failed to make any employer contacts for the weeks in which he filed his weekly-continued claims for benefits was done in error.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant’s appeal shall be accepted as timely. Further, claimant established a good cause reason for his failure to report as directed. Benefits are allowed effective November 3, 2019, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant. The representative shall promptly examine the claim and any protest, take the initiative to ascertain relevant information concerning the claim, and, on the basis of the facts found by the representative, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and its maximum duration, and whether any disqualification shall be imposed. The claimant has the burden of proving that the claimant meets the basic eligibility conditions of § 96.4. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to § 96.5, except as provided by this subsection. The claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence showing that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving § 96.5, subsection 10, and has the burden of proving that a voluntary quit pursuant to § 96.5, subsection 1, was for good cause attributable to the employer and that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving § 96.5, subsection 1, paragraphs “a” through “h”. Unless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant’s last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision. If an administrative law judge affirms a decision of the representative, or the appeal board affirms a decision of the administrative law judge allowing benefits, the benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which is thereafter taken, but if the decision is finally reversed, no employer’s account shall be charged with benefits so paid and this relief from charges shall apply to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding § 96.8, subsection 5.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

Date of submission and extension of time for payments and notices.

(2) The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

a. For submission that is not within the statutory or regulatory period to be considered timely, the interested party must submit a written explanation setting forth the circumstances of the delay.

b. The division shall designate personnel who are to decide whether an extension of time shall be granted.

c. No submission shall be considered timely if the delay in filing was unreasonable, as determined by the department after considering the circumstances in the case.

d. If submission is not considered timely, although the interested party contends that the delay was due to division error or misinformation or delay or other action of the United States postal service, the division shall issue an appealable decision to the interested party.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) states an appeal must be filed within ten days after notification of that decision was mailed. In addressing an issue of timeliness of an appeal under that portion of this Code section, the Iowa Supreme Court has held that this statute clearly limits the time to do so, and compliance with the appeal notice provision is mandatory and jurisdictional. Beardslee v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979). However, without timely notice of a disqualification, no meaningful opportunity for appeal exists. Smith v. Iowa Emp't Sec. Comm'n, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

In this case, the claimant does not read the English language. He relies solely on a translator, his daughter, to interpret mail he receives from IWD. Claimant took steps to have the decision interpreted by his daughter but she misinterpreted it for him. Here, the claimant's lack of proficiency in English created a language barrier, which played a key role in the claimant's ability to have any meaningful opportunity to respond to the contents of the decision because he was not notified that a disqualification existed. While the claimant was literally provided a copy of the decision, the document had no meaningful effect such that he could timely comply with its instructions in filing an appeal. As such, claimant's appeal is considered timely due to the fact that his language barrier affected his ability to file a timely appeal.

The next issue is whether the claimant provided a good cause reason for his failure to report as directed. The administrative law judge finds that he did.

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)e provides:

Section 96.6 of the employment security law of Iowa states that claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such rules as the department prescribes. The department of workforce development accordingly prescribes:

(e) In order to maintain continuing eligibility for benefits during any continuous period of unemployment, an individual shall report as directed to do so by an authorized representative of the department. If the individual has moved to another locality, the individual may register and report in person at a workforce development center at the time previously specified for the reporting.

(1) An individual who files a weekly continued claim will have the benefit payment automatically deposited weekly on a debit card specified by the department.

(2) The department retains the ultimate authority to choose the method of reporting and payment.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(11) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(11) Failure to report as directed to workforce development in response to the notice which was mailed to the claimant will result in the claimant being deemed not to meet the availability requirements.

The claimant was unable to read the notice to report which was mailed to him because he does not read English. The fact-finding interviewer attempted to contact the claimant at his daughter's number because claimant did not have a telephone. His daughter failed to tell him that the interviewer was attempting to contact him. As such, he has established a good cause reason for his failure to report as directed.

Further, the underlying issues of whether the claimant was able to and available for work and whether he made sufficient employer contacts each week he filed his weekly-continued claims for benefits has been resolved. The claimant credibly testified that he was able to and available for work and had been actively and earnestly seeking work during each of the benefit weeks he has filed his weekly-continued claims for benefits. As such, the claimant has sufficiently demonstrated to the satisfaction of the administrative law judge that he was able to and available for work and has made adequate work searches. Benefits are allowed effective November 3, 2019, provided he is otherwise eligible.

DECISION:

The claimant's appeal shall be considered timely. The November 8, 2019 (reference 05) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. The claimant has established a good cause reason for failing to report as directed. Benefits are allowed effective November 3, 2019, provided he is otherwise eligible.

Dawn Boucher
Administrative Law Judge

Decision Dated and Mailed

db/scn