ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

IOWAWORKS CENTER

OC: 04/28/24

Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Available for work lowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)e - Procedures for workers desiring to file a claim for benefits

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23 (11) - Failure to Report

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) - Timeliness of Appeal

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On June 27, 2024, the claimant/appellant filed an appeal from the May 23, 2024 (reference 04) unemployment insurance decision that found the claimant was not eligible for unemployment benefits effective May 19, 2024, because the claimant failed to report as directed. The claimant was properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on July 16, 2024. The claimant participated personally. CTS Language Link Spanish interpreter, Jonathan (Id. No. 17033) provided Spanish interpretation. The administrative law judge took official notice of the claimant's unemployment insurance benefits records. Exhibit 1 was admitted into the record.

ISSUES:

- I. Is the claimant's appeal timely?
- II. Was the claimant able to work and available for work effective May 19, 2024?
- III. Did the claimant fail to report as directed by a department representative?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The unemployment insurance decision was mailed to the appellant's address of record on May 23, 2024. The claimant received the decision. The claimant is Spanish speaking and can read a little English. The claimant did not understand that he needed to appeal the decision by June 2, 2024. After the claimant received an overpayment decision the claimant filed the appeal. The appeal was submitted on June 27, 2024.

The claimant filed an original claim for unemployment insurance benefits effective April 28, 2024. On May 13, 2024, Iowa Workforce Development sent the claimant a notice to report to a Reemployment Case Management Weekly Certification Lab on May 20, 2024 at 1:30 p.m. (Exhibit 1). The claimant received the notice. The claimant forgot about the appointment and took his son to Minneapolis to renew his passport. The claimant did not contact IowaWorks to reschedule the appointment.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The first issue to be considered in this appeal is whether the appellant's appeal is timely. The administrative law judge determines it is.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides:

Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant. The representative shall promptly examine the claim and any protest, take the initiative to ascertain relevant information concerning the claim, and, on the basis of the facts found by the representative, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and its maximum duration, and whether any disqualification shall be imposed. The claimant has the burden of proving that the claimant meets the basic eligibility conditions of section 96.4. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to section 96.5, except as provided by this subsection. The claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence showing that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsections 10 and 11, and has the burden of proving that a voluntary quit pursuant to section 96.5, subsection 1, was for good cause attributable to the employer and that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraphs "a" through "h". Unless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision. If an administrative law judge affirms a decision of the representative, or the appeal board affirms a decision of the administrative law judge allowing benefits, the benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which is thereafter taken, but if the decision is finally reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid and this relief from charges shall apply to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The claimant is Spanish speaking and can read a little bit of English. Although the claimant has a limited understanding of the English language, the claimant did not understand that he needed to file an appeal of the decision. Because of the language barrier the appeal shall be accepted as timely.

The next thing that must be determined is whether the claimant failed to report as directed to lowa Workforce Development. The administrative law judge concludes as follows:

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)e provides, in relevant part:

e. In order to maintain continuing eligibility for benefits during any continuous period of unemployment, an individual shall report as directed to do so by an authorized representative of the department. If the individual has moved to another locality, the individual may register and report in person at a workforce development center at the time previously specified for the reporting.

(2) The department retains the ultimate authority to choose the method of reporting and payment.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(11) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(11) Failure to report as directed to workforce development in response to the notice which was mailed to the claimant will result in the claimant being deemed not to meet the availability requirements.

The claimant failed to appear for the in person appointment on May 20, 2024 due to forgetting he had an appointment. This is not a justifiable cause for missing the appointment. Since the claimant did not report he does not meet the availability of the law. Benefits are denied as of May 19, 2024, and continue until the claimant reschedules and attends the workshop.

DECISION:

The appeal is timely.

The May 23, 2024 (reference 04) decision is AFFIRMED. The claimant failed to report as directed to lowa Workforce Development. The claimant does not meet the availability requirements of the law. Benefits are denied effective May 19, 2024, and continue until the claimant attends the workshop.
