OC: 05/15/22
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able to and Available for Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Minani Furaha, the employer/appellant, filed an appeal from the Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) September 15, 2022 (reference 08) unemployment insurance (UI) decision that denied REGULAR (state) UI benefits for the week of August 21-27, 2022 because IWD records showed that Ms. Furaha did not meet the reemployment activities (work search) requirement that week. A telephone hearing was held on October 18, 2022. Appeals 22A-UI-17266-DZ-T, 22A-UI-17267-DZ-T, 22A-UI-17268-DZ-T, 22A-UI-17269-DZ-T, 22A-UI-17270-DZ-T, and 22A-UI-17271-DZ-T were heard together and formed one hearing record. Ms. Furaha participated personally through a Swahili CTS Language Link interpreter. The department participated through Jennifer Miller, career planner. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record. Department's Exhibit 1 was admitted as evidence.

ISSUE:

Did Ms. Furaha meet the reemployment activities (work search) requirement for work the week of August 21-27, 2022?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Ms. Furaha filed a weekly UI claim for the week of August 21-27, 2022. Ms. Furaha did not search for work that week. Ms. Furaha has back issues and has been seeing her doctor weekly since about June 2022. As of the hearing date, Ms. Furaha's doctor had not yet released her to return to work.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes as follows:

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(1) provides:

Benefit eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(1) Able to work. An individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood.

a. Illness, injury or pregnancy. Each case is decided upon an individual basis, recognizing that various work opportunities present different physical requirements. A statement from a medical practitioner is considered prima facie evidence of the physical ability of the individual to perform the work required. A pregnant individual must meet the same criteria for determining ableness as do all other individuals.

b. Interpretation of ability to work. The law provides that an individual must be able to work to be eligible for benefits. This means that the individual must be physically able to work, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but able to work in some reasonably suitable, comparable, gainful, full-time endeavor, other than self-employment, which is generally available in the labor market in which the individual resides.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(1) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(1) An individual who is ill and presently not able to perform work due to illness.

To be able to work, "[a]n individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood." Sierra v. Employment Appeal Board, 508 N.W.2d 719, 721 (Iowa 1993); Geiken v. Lutheran Home for the Aged, 468 N.W.2d 223 (Iowa 1991); Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(1). "An evaluation of an individual's ability to work for the purposes of determining that individual's eligibility for unemployment benefits must necessarily take into consideration the economic and legal forces at work in the general labor market in which the individual resides." Sierra at 723. A person claiming benefits has the burden of proof that she is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22.

In this case, Ms. Furaha did not meet the reemployment activities (work search) requirement for work the week of August 21-27, 2022. Ms. Furaha is not able to and available for work that week. Benefits are denied for the week of August 21-27, 2022.

DECISION:

The September 15, 2022 (reference 08) UI decision is AFFIRMED. Ms. Furaha is not able to and available for work the week of August 21-27, 2022. Benefits are denied for that week.
