APPEAL 23A-UI-01871-DZ-T
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 01/22/23
Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timely Appeal

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Collis, LLC, the employer/appellant, filed an appeal from the Iowa Workforce Development February 9, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance (UI) decision. The decision allowed Mr. Demaris REGUALR (state) UI benefits because IWD concluded the employer dismissed him from work on December 15, 2022 for a reason that did not disqualify her from UI benefits. The Iowa Department of Inspections and Appeals UI Appeals Bureau mailed a notice of hearing to the employer and Mr. Demaris. The undersigned administrative law judge held a telephone hearing on March 10, 2023. The employer participated through Michelle Anderson, human resources generalist. Mr. Demaris did not participate in the hearing. The undersigned took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Did the employer file its appeal on time?

Did the employer discharge Mr. Demaris from employment for disqualifying job-related misconduct?

Did IWD overpay Mr. Demaris UI benefits?

If so, should she repay the benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: IWD mailed the February 9, 2023, (reference 01) UI decision to the employer at the correct address on February 9, 2023. The UI decision states that it becomes final unless an appeal is postmarked or received by the IWD Appeals Section by Sunday, February 19, 2023. If the appeal deadline falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the appeal period is extended to the next working day. So, the appeal deadline was extended to Monday, February 20, 2023.

The employer received the decision in the mail. The human resources manager was out of the office and gathered the employer's appeal information when she returned to the office on February 21. The employer filed its appeal via fax on February 22, 2023. The appeal was received on February 22, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the employer did not file its appeal of the February 9, 2023 (reference 01) UI decision on time.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

2. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(2) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed.¹ Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid.²

The employer received the February 9, 2023 (reference 01) UI decision before the appeal deadline and, therefore, could have filed an appeal by the deadline. The notice provision of the decision was valid. The employer's delay in filing its appeal was not due to an error or misinformation from IWD or due to delay or other action of the United States Postal Service. No other good cause reason has been established for the delay in filing the appeal. The employer did not file its appeal of the February 9, 2023 (reference 01) UI decision on time and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction (authority) to decide the other issues in this matter.

² Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982).

DECISION:

The employer did not file its appeal of the February 9, 2023 (reference 01) UI decision on time. The February 9, 2023 (reference 01) UI decision allowing Mr. Demaris REGULAR (state) UI benefits is AFFIRMED.
