OC: 09/26/10
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Administrative Code – 871 IAC 24.26(19) Voluntary Quit Spot or Casual Labor
Iowa Code § 96.5(1)j – Voluntary Leaving – Temporary Employment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from the March 28, 2011, reference 03, decision that denied benefits. After due notice was issued, a telephone conference hearing was held on May 2, 2011. The claimant participated. The employer failed to respond to the notice of hearing and did not participate.

ISSUE:

The issue is whether claimant was voluntarily quit employment without good cause attributable to the employer

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony and having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant was employed through the employer performing various temporary work from 2005 through October 16, 2010. The claimant completed his last assignment and called the employer to ask if they had additional work but no work was available for him. Claimant never signed an agreement that he would return within three days of completing his last assignment to indicate his availability for work.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code § 96.5-1-j provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department, but the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

j. The individual is a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment and who seeks reassignment. Failure of the individual to notify the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment within three working days of the completion of each employment assignment under a contract of hire shall be deemed a voluntary quit unless the individual was not advised in writing of the duty to notify the temporary employment firm upon completion of an employment assignment or the individual had good cause for not contacting the temporary employment firm within three working days and notified the firm at the first reasonable opportunity thereafter.

To show that the employee was advised in writing of the notification requirement of this paragraph, the temporary employment firm shall advise the temporary employee by requiring the temporary employee, at the time of employment with the temporary employment firm, to read and sign a document that provides a clear and concise explanation of the notification requirement and the consequences of a failure to notify. The document shall be separate from any contract of employment and a copy of the signed document shall be provided to the temporary employee.

For the purposes of this paragraph:

(1) "Temporary employee" means an individual who is employed by a temporary employment firm to provide services to clients to supplement their work force during absences, seasonal workloads, temporary skill or labor market shortages, and for special assignments and projects.

(2) "Temporary employment firm" means a person engaged in the business of employing temporary employees.

The requirements of Iowa Code § 96.5-1-j have not been met by the employer. Claimant's separation is not disqualifying. Benefits are allowed if otherwise eligible.

DECISION:

The March 28, 2011, reference 03, decision is reversed. The claimant is eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits, provided the claimant meets all other eligibility requirements.
