AMENDED
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 11/27/22
Claimant: Appellant (1R)

Iowa Code § 96.4(4) – Monetary Eligibility

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On December 6, 2022, the claimant filed an appeal from the monetary record determined by the Department as of December 1, 2022. Notice of hearing was mailed to the claimant's last known address of record for a telephone hearing to be held at 8:00 a.m. on January 3, 2023. The claimant participated personally and with Attorney Marlon Mormann. Spanish interpretation was provided by CTS. Claimant's Exhibit was admitted to the record. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant's monetary determination correct?
Is the claimant monetarily eligible to receive benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The claimant filed his claim for benefits with an original effective date of November 27, 2022. The Department issued a monetary determination dated December 1, 2022, showing earnings in one quarter. The Department determined that the claimant was ineligible for benefits based upon a lack of earnings. The claimant has shown evidence from the employer's insurer to indicate that he was injured on or about April 20, 2021, and began his healing period on April 21, 2021. The claimant reached maximum medical improvement as of May 26, 2022.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code sections 96.4(4)a-c provide:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

4. a. The individual has been paid wages for insured work during the individual's base period in an amount at least one and one-quarter times the wages paid to the individual during that quarter of the individual's base period in which the individual's wages were highest; provided that the individual has been paid wages for insured work totaling at least three and five-tenths percent of the statewide average annual wage for insured work, computed for the preceding calendar year if the individual's benefit year begins on or after the first full week in July and computed for the second preceding calendar year if the individual's benefit year begins before the first full week in July, in that calendar quarter in the individual's base period in which the individual's wages were highest, and the individual has been paid wages for insured work totaling at least one-half of the amount of wages required under this paragraph in the calendar quarter of the base period in which the individual's wages were highest, in a calendar quarter in the individual's base period other than the calendar quarter in which the individual's wages were highest. The calendar quarter wage requirements shall be rounded to the nearest multiple of ten dollars.

b. For an individual who does not have sufficient wages in the base period, as defined in section 96.1A, to otherwise qualify for benefits pursuant to this subsection, the individual's base period shall be the last four completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of the individual's benefit year if such period qualifies the individual for benefits under this subsection.

- (1) Wages that fall within the alternative base period established under this paragraph "b" are not available for qualifying benefits in any subsequent benefit year.
- (2) Employers shall be charged in the manner provided in this chapter for benefits paid based upon quarters used in the alternative base period.

c. If the individual has drawn benefits in any benefit year, the individual must during or subsequent to that year, work in and be paid wages for insured work totaling at least eight times the individual's weekly benefit amount, as a condition to receive benefits in the next benefit year.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.1(11) provides:

Base period. The period of time in which the amount of wages paid to an individual in insured work which determines an individual's eligibility for, and the amount and duration of, benefits. The base period consists of the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the calendar quarter in which the individual's claim for benefits is effective with the following exception. The department shall exclude three or more calendar quarters from the individual's base period in which the individual received workers' compensation or indemnity insurance benefits and substitute consecutive calendar quarters immediately preceding the base period in which the individual did not receive workers' compensation or indemnity insurance benefits. This exception applies under the following conditions:

- a. The individual did not work in and receive wages from insured work for three calendar quarters of the base period, or
- b. The individual did not work in and receive wages from insured work for two calendar quarters and lacked qualifying wages from insured work to establish a valid claim for benefits during another quarter of the base period.

The Department determined that the claimant was monetarily ineligible for benefits because the only quarter in which wages were reported was the 1st Quarter of 2022. The claimant has received workers' compensation benefits in additional quarters between April 2021 and May 2022, and a substitution of quarters is appropriate in this case.

DECISION:

The issue of the claimant's monetary eligibility is REMANDED to the Benefits Bureau for review and determination. The Department shall consider the claimant's workers' compensation benefits in determining whether the claimant has sufficient wages in other quarters for the purposes of eligibility for benefits.

The appeal period will be extended to the next business day if the last day to appeal falls on a weekend or a legal holiday. There is no filing fee to file an appeal with the Employment Appeal Board.

AN APPEAL TO THE BOARD SHALL STATE CLEARLY:

- 1) The name, address, and social security number of the claimant.
- 2) A reference to the decision from which the appeal is taken.
- 3) That an appeal from such decision is being made and such appeal is signed.
- 4) The grounds upon which such appeal is based.

An Employment Appeal Board decision is final agency action. If a party disagrees with the Employment Appeal Board decision, they may file a petition for judicial review in district court.

2. If you do not file an appeal of the judge's decision with the Employment Appeal Board within fifteen (15) days, the decision becomes final agency action, and you have the option to file a petition for judicial review in District Court within thirty (30) days after the decision becomes final. Additional information on how to file a petition can be found at www.iowacourts.gov/efile. There may be a filing fee to file the petition in District Court.

Note to Parties: YOU MAY REPRESENT yourself in the appeal or obtain a lawyer or other interested party to do so provided there is no expense to Workforce Development. If you wish to be represented by a lawyer, you may obtain the services of either a private attorney or one whose services are paid for with public funds.

Note to Claimant: It is important that you file your weekly claim as directed, while this appeal is pending, to protect your continuing right to benefits.
