DECISION

OC: 10/10/21
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On June 23, 2022, Victoria Iverson (claimant/appellant) filed an appeal from the June 22, 2022, reference 05, unemployment insurance decision that disqualified the claimant from benefits due to voluntarily quitting her employment without good cause attributable to her employer effective May 21, 2022. A telephone hearing was held at on August 3, 2022 pursuant to due notice. The claimant, Victoria Iverson, participated and testified. The employer Dolgencorp, LLC, participated through Traci Ives, Assistant Manager. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Did the claimant quit the employment without good cause attributable to the employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant began working for employer on November 22, 2021. Claimant last worked as a full-time assistant manager. Claimant was separated from employment on May 21, 2022, when she voluntarily quit her employment due to personal reasons. Claimant's son had encountered some legal difficulties that were in potential conflict with her employment. The claimant chose to quit her job in order to provide assistance to her son.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow the administrative law judge concludes claimant voluntarily left the employment without good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(20) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(20) The claimant left for compelling personal reasons; however, the period of absence exceeded ten working days.

The claimant voluntarily quit her employment without good cause attributable to her employer and benefits are denied effective May 21, 2022.

DECISION:

The June 22, 2022, (reference 05) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. Claimant voluntarily left the employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as she has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times her weekly benefit amount, provided she is otherwise eligible.
