ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS DIVISION, UI APPEALS BUREAU

CHARMALEE I WHITE

Claimant

APPEAL 23A-UI-01996-AR-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

DALLAS CENTER GRIMES COMM SCH

Employer

OC: 11/13/22

Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer filed an appeal from the February 21, 2023, (reference 04) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits based upon the determination that claimant was available for work. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on March 14, 2023. The claimant, Charmalee I. White, participated. The employer, Dallas Center-Grimes Community School District, participated through Michelle Wearmouth and Jeff Wolfe. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Is claimant able to and available for work effective November 13, 2022?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant began employment as a bus driver with the employer in August 2021. She separated from employment on July 17, 2022.

Claimant is currently employed with another employer, XM Trucking. She filed a claim for unemployment benefits with an effective date of November 13, 2022. That was the time at which the current employer had no work for claimant. She filed weekly continuing claims from November 13, 2022, through March 4, 2023. Throughout that period, there were no barriers to claimant's employment.

Claimant's separation from employment has been the subject of two previous decisions. An administrative law judge determined benefits were allowed and the employer's account was not chargeable in 22A-UI-19880-JT-T. A decision issued February 8, 2023, (reference 03), also determined that benefits were allowed, and wage credits earned with this employer were to be charged to the fund. The employer is reminded to review its quarterly charge statements, which include appeal rights should the employer disagree with charges made to the account.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that the claimant is able to work and available for work for the period in question.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37", paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.22(2) provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(2) Available for work. The availability requirement is satisfied when an individual is willing, able, and ready to accept suitable work which the individual does not have good cause to refuse, that is, the individual is genuinely attached to the labor market. Since, under unemployment insurance laws, it is the availability of an individual that is required to be tested, the labor market must be described in terms of the individual. A labor market for an individual means a market for the type of service which the individual offers in the geographical area in which the individual offers the service. Market in that sense does not mean that job vacancies must exist; the purpose of unemployment insurance is to compensate for lack of job vacancies. It means only that the type of services which an individual is offering is generally performed in the geographical area in which the individual is offering the services.

For an unemployed individual to be eligible to receive benefits, she must be able to work, available for work, and actively seeking work as required by the unemployment insurance law. Iowa Code § 96.4(3). The burden is on the claimant to establish that she is able and available for work within the meaning of the statute. Iowa Code § 96.6(2); Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22. In this case, claimant has demonstrated that there were no barriers to her employment that would render her unable to or unavailable for work. Accordingly, benefits are allowed. Due to previous decisions that remain in force, the employer's account is not chargeable for benefits paid to claimant.

DECISION:

The February 21, 2023, (reference 04) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. The claimant is able to work and available for work effective November 13, 2022. Benefits are allowed.
