(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Section 96.5(1)j – Quit/Temporary

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer, Express Services, Inc., filed an appeal from a decision dated June 26, 2006, reference 03. The decision allowed benefits to the claimant, Nancy Groh. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held by telephone conference call on July 26, 2006. The claimant did not provide a telephone number where she could be contacted and did not participate. The employer participated by Staffing Consultant Andre Smith.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony of the witness and having examined all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Nancy Groh was employed by Express Services from June 20, 2005 until April 10, 2006. Her last assignment was at Mercy Medical Center and began on March 27, 2006. The assignment ended on April 10, 2006, and the claimant contacted Express Services on April 12, 2006 and notified Holly Burtness she was available for other assignments.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The issue is whether the claimant quit work for reasons which would disqualify her from receiving unemployment benefits.

Iowa Code section 96.5-1-j provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department, But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

j. The individual is a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment and who seeks reassignment. Failure of the individual to notify the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment within three working days of the completion of each employment assignment under a contract of hire shall be deemed a voluntary quit unless the individual was not advised in writing of the duty to notify the temporary employment firm upon completion of an employment assignment or the individual had good cause for not contacting the temporary employment firm within three working days and notified the firm at the first reasonable opportunity thereafter.

To show that the employee was advised in writing of the notification requirement of this paragraph, the temporary employment firm shall advise the temporary employee by requiring the temporary employee, at the time of employment with the temporary employment firm, to read and sign a document that provides a clear and concise explanation of the notification requirement and the consequences of a failure to notify. The document shall be separate from any contract of employment and a copy of the signed document shall be provided to the temporary employee.

For the purposes of this paragraph:

(1) "Temporary employee" means an individual who is employed by a temporary employment firm to provide services to clients to supplement their work force during absences, seasonal workloads, temporary skill or labor market shortages, and for special assignments and projects.

(2) "Temporary employment firm" means a person engaged in the business of employing temporary employees.

The claimant completed her final assignment as required and notified the temporary agency within three days of the end of that assignment to request a new one. Under the provisions of the above Code section, she has complied with the notice requirements and disqualification may not be imposed.

DECISION:

The representative's decision of June 26, 2006, reference 03, is affirmed. Nancy Groh is qualified for benefits, provided she is otherwise eligible.
