ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE

Claimant: Respondent (2)

Iowa Admin. Code ch. 871 r. 24.23(10) – Leave of Absence
Iowa Code § 96.4-3 – Able and Available

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Employer filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated April 14, 2022 reference 01, which held claimant able and available for work. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on June 8, 2022. Claimant participated personally. Employer participated by Devin Collins. Employer's Exhibits 1, and 3-6 were admitted into evidence.

ISSUE:

Whether claimant is able and available for work?
Whether claimant is on an approved leave of absence?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: Claimant worked as a full time cosmetics counter cashier before going on a leave of absence. Claimant's leave of absence was so that she could have surgery for a problem that was not work-related. She was out from work from approximately October 8, 2021 until January 11, 2022. When she returned, reorganization of the company meant that there was no longer a cosmetics cashier position. When claimant returned to work, she brought with her a doctor's note indicating various activities that she could not do. These restrictions, which later became permanent, included no bending, no lifting with left arm, no climbing, no pulling, no standing over 30 minutes, no reaching, 10 pound weight limit (right arm only), and limited walking(with a cane). None of these restrictions were in place prior to claimant going on leave.

Employer stated that at the present time they do not have a position which can accommodate claimant's restrictions, but claimant is still employed with employer and when a position opens up that can allow for these restrictions, claimant will be put in that position. Even if employer did still have a cosmetics counter position, she would not have been able to work at that position with her restrictions, as she would have been required to do many activities that were restricted.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(10) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(10) The claimant requested and was granted a leave of absence, such period is deemed to be a period of voluntary unemployment and shall be considered ineligible for benefits for such period.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(1)a provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(1) Able to work. An individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood.

a. Illness, injury or pregnancy. Each case is decided upon an individual basis, recognizing that various work opportunities present different physical requirements. A statement from a medical practitioner is considered prima facie evidence of the physical ability of the individual to perform the work required. A pregnant individual must meet the same criteria for determining ableness as do all other individuals.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(35) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(35) Where the claimant is not able to work and is under the care of a medical practitioner and has not been released as being able to work.

Inasmuch as the injury was not work-related and the treating physician has not released the claimant to return to work without restrictions, the claimant has not established the ability to work to the same degree as prior to her being placed on leave. Claimant chose to have the surgery done for an injury that was not caused by her job. Since the date of her leave, she has not been able to work without restrictions. Benefits are withheld until such time as the claimant obtains a full medical release to return to work to the same degree as prior to being placed on leave.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated April 14, 2022, reference 01 is reversed. Claimant is not eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits, effective March 20, 2022.
