Iowa Code Section 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit 871 IAC 26.8(5) – Decision on the Record

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Blake Wallace appealed from an unemployment insurance decision dated April 15, 2011, reference 02, that denied benefits. A telephone hearing was scheduled for June 13, 2011. Mr. Wallace did not respond to the hearing notice instructions and did not participate in the hearing. The employer was not available at the number the employer had provided for the hearing. The hearing in this matter was to be consolidated with the hearing in Appeal Number 11A-UI-06480-JTT. Based on the claimant/appellant's failure to participate in the hearing, the administrative file, and the law, the administrative law judge enters the following findings of fact, reasoning and conclusions of law and decision.

ISSUE:

Decision on the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The parties were properly notified of the scheduled hearing on this appeal by notice mailed on May 31, 2011. The appellant, Blake Wallace, failed to provide a telephone number at which he could be reached for the hearing and did not participate in the hearing or request a postponement of the hearing as required by the hearing notice. There is no evidence the hearing notice was returned by the postal service as undeliverable for any reason. Mr. Wallace also failed to respond to the second notice mailed to him concerning Appeal Number 11A-UI-06480-JTT, set for hearing at the same time. Mr. Wallace also failed to respond to a third notice concerning an unrelated matter set for hearing earlier the same day. See Appeal Number 11A-UI-06478-JTT.

The administrative law judge notes that the employer did not answer their phone when the administrative law judge made two attempts to reach the employer at the number the employer had provided for the hearing: Kristi Fiedler at 641-682-8041, ext. 10245. The administrative law judge could not get to Ms. Fiedler's extension because no one answered at the main number and there was no answering system available to route the call.

The administrative law judge has conducted a careful review of the administrative file to determine whether the unemployment insurance decision should be affirmed. Mr. Wallace's appeal is on its face late. The appeal deadline was April 25, 2011. The appeal was filed on May 11, 2011.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

871 IAC 26.8(3), (4) and (5) provide:

Withdrawals and postponements.

(3) If, due to emergency or other good cause, a party, having received due notice, is unable to attend a hearing or request postponement within the prescribed time, the presiding officer may, if no decision has been issued, reopen the record and, with notice to all parties, schedule another hearing. If a decision has been issued, the decision may be vacated upon the presiding officer's own motion or at the request of a party within 15 days after the mailing date of the decision and in the absence of an appeal to the employment appeal board of the department of inspections and appeals. If a decision is vacated, notice shall be given to all parties of a new hearing to be held and decided by another presiding officer. Once a decision has become final as provided by statute, the presiding officer has no jurisdiction to reopen the record or vacate the decision.

(4) A request to reopen a record or vacate a decision may be heard ex parte by the presiding officer. The granting or denial of such a request may be used as a grounds for appeal to the employment appeal board of the department of inspections and appeals upon the issuance of the presiding officer's final decision in the case.

(5) If good cause for postponement or reopening has not been shown, the presiding officer shall make a decision based upon whatever evidence is properly in the record.

The administrative law judge has carefully reviewed evidence in the record and concludes that the unemployment insurance decision previously entered in this case is correct and should be affirmed. In the absence of testimony and other evidence from Mr. Wallace to establish a timely appeal, or good cause for treating his late appeal as a timely appeal, the administrative law judge would have no jurisdiction or authority under the law to disturb the decision from which Mr. Wallace has appealed.

Pursuant to the rule, the appellant must make a written request to the administrative law judge that the hearing be reopened within 15 days after the mailing date of this decision. The written request should be mailed to the administrative law judge at the address listed at the beginning of this decision and must explain the emergency or other good cause that prevented the appellant from participating in the hearing at its scheduled time.

DECISION:

The Agency representative's April 15, 2011, reference 02, decision is affirmed. The decision that denied benefits remains in effect. This decision will become final unless a written request establishing good cause to reopen the record is made to the administrative law judge within 15 days of the date of this decision.
