Section 96.6-2 - Timeliness of Protest

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

M & M Cartage, Inc. (employer) appealed a representative's January 23, 2006 decision (reference 01) that concluded Raymond E. McKimpson (claimant) was qualified to receive unemployment insurance benefits and the employer's account might be charged because the employer's protest was not timely filed. After hearing notices were mailed to the parties' last-known addresses of record, a telephone hearing was held on February 21, 2006. The claimant participated in the hearing. Steve Person appeared on the employer's behalf. During the hearing, Exhibit A-1 was entered into evidence. Based on the evidence, the arguments of the parties, and the law, the administrative law judge enters the following findings of fact, reasoning and conclusions of law, and decision.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The claimant established a claim for unemployment insurance benefits effective January 1, 2006. A notice of claim was mailed to the employer's last known address of record on January 5, 2006. The employer received the notice on January 19, 2006. The notice contained a warning that a protest must be postmarked or received by the Agency by January 17, 2006. The protest was filed by fax on January 19, 2006, which is after the date noticed on the notice of claim.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The issue in this matter is whether the employer filed a timely protest. The law provides that all interested parties shall be promptly notified about an individual filing a claim. The parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of claim to protest payment of benefits to the claimant. Iowa Code §96.6-2. Another portion of Iowa Code §96.6-2 dealing with timeliness of an appeal from a representative's decision states an appeal must be filed within ten days after notification of that decision was mailed. In addressing an issue of timeliness of an appeal under that portion of this Code section, the Iowa Supreme Court has held that this statute clearly limits the time to do so, and compliance with the appeal notice provision is mandatory and jurisdictional. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979). The administrative law judge considers the reasoning and holding of the Beardslee court controlling on the portion of Iowa Code Section 96.6-2 which deals with the time limit to file a protest after the notice of claim has been mailed to the employer. Pursuant to rules 871 IAC 26.2(96)(1) and 871 IAC 24.35(96)(1), protests are considered filed when postmarked, if mailed. Messina v. IDJS, 341 N.W.2d 52 (lowa 1983). The question in this case thus becomes whether the employer was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an protest in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973). The record shows that the employer did not have a reasonable opportunity to file a timely protest.

The record establishes that the employer's representative did not receive the notice of claim until January 19, 2006. The employer was not responsible for the delay in receiving the notice of claim, but the delay was due to error or misinformation or delay or other action of the United States Postal Service. The employer did file its protest within ten days of actually receiving the notice. The administrative law judge, therefore, concludes that the protest was timely filed pursuant to lowa Code §96.6-2. This matter is remanded to the Claims Section to investigate the separation issue and determine whether the employer's account will or will not be subject to charges based on benefits the claimant may receive.

DECISION:

The January 23, 2006 (reference 01) decision is reversed. The protest in this case was timely. The matter is remanded to the Claims Section for investigation and determination of the separation issue.
