Section 96.19-20 – Eligibility For Emergency Unemployment Compensation

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Diane M. Grimstad filed an appeal from an unemployment insurance decision dated March 8, 2010, reference 01, that held she was ineligible for emergency unemployment compensation benefits on her 2008 Iowa unemployment insurance claim because she was monetarily eligible for a new state unemployment insurance claim effective February 14, 2010. Due notice was issued for a telephone hearing to be held September 18, 2010. At the time of the hearing, Ms. Grimstad waived a formal hearing. This decision is based on information in Agency benefit payment records.

ISSUE:

Is the claimant eligible for emergency unemployment compensation benefits on her 2008 Iowa claim effective February 14, 2010?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having examined all matters of record, the administrative law judge finds: Diane M. Grimstad was monetarily eligible for state unemployment insurance benefits in a benefit year that began February 14, 2010. She has exhausted those benefits. She was then returned to a federal emergency unemployment compensation claim based on her 2009 state unemployment insurance claim.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The question raised in this appeal was whether Ms. Grimstad was eligible for emergency unemployment compensation benefits on her 2008 state unemployment insurance claim. She was not because as of February 14, 2010 she was monetarily eligible for state unemployment insurance benefits once again. Public Law 110-252 denies emergency unemployment compensation benefits to individuals who are monetarily eligible for state unemployment insurance benefits through any state.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated March 8, 2010, reference 01, is affirmed. As of February 14, 2010 the claimant was not eligible for emergency unemployment compensation benefits based on her 2008 state unemployment insurance claim.
