Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Filing – Timely Appeal

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35 – Filing

Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) – Definitions – Total, partial unemployment

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Eligibility – A&A – Able to, available for, work search

Iowa Code § 96.7(2)A(2) – Charges – Same base period employment

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(26) – Eligibility – A&A – Part-time same hours, wages

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from the January 14, 2021 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits from September 20, 2020 through September 26, 2020 finding claimant worked enough hours to be considered employed. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on February 17, 2022. Claimant participated. Employer participated through Scott Coons, Human Resources Associate. Claimant's Exhibit A was admitted. Official notice was taken of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant filed a timely appeal.

Whether claimant is totally, partially or temporarily unemployed.

Whether claimant is able to and available for work.

Whether claimant is still employed at the same hours and wages.

Whether employer's account is subject to charge.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The Unemployment Insurance Decision was mailed to claimant at the correct address on January 14, 2021. Claimant does not remember whether she received it. The decision states that it becomes final unless an appeal is postmarked or received by Iowa Workforce Development Appeals Section by January 24, 2021. Claimant did not appeal the decision. Claimant appealed a subsequent overpayment decision via mail on December 31, 2021 as evidenced by the postmark. Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) received the appeal on January 3, 2022 and applied it to all adverse decisions including the January 14, 2021 denial decision. Claimant gave no reason for the delay in submitting the appeal.

Claimant is employed as a full-time Custodian with The University of Iowa. Employer furloughed claimant without pay from September 27, 2020 through October 2, 2020 as a result of Covid-19. Claimant filed an initial claim for benefits effective September 20, 2020 and weekly claims for the two benefit weeks ending September 26, 2020 and October 2, 2020. Claimant worked her regular hours the week ending September 26, 2020. Claimant worked no hours the week ending October 2, 2020.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion? Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

Claimant did not appeal the decision until after the deadline. Claimant has not established that her delay was due to agency error or misinformation or delay of the United States Postal Service. The appeal was not timely. Therefore, the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the appeal.

Even if the appeal was filed timely, the administrative law judge would still affirm the representative's decision denying benefits from September 20, 2020 through September 26, 2020 because claimant worked her regular hours that week and, thus, is not entitled to benefits for that week.

DECISION:

Claimant's appeal was not timely. The administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of the representative. The January 14, 2021 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed.
