APPEAL NO. 22A-UI-17528-JT-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OC: 08/28/22
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code Section 96.5(2)(a) & (d) – Discharge for Misconduct

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On September 27, 2022, Ashley Knight (claimant) filed a timely appeal from the September 22, 2022 (reference 01) decision that disqualified the claimant for benefits and that relieved the employer's account of liability for benefits, based on the deputy's conclusion that the claimant was discharged on August 31, 2022 for misconduct in connection with the employment. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on October 24, 2022. Claimant participated. Michael Brandenburg represented the employer. Exhibit A, the online appeal, was received into evidence.

ISSUE:

Whether the claimant was discharged for misconduct in connection with the employment that disqualifies the claimant for unemployment insurance benefits.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Ashley Knight (claimant) was employed by Reuter & Zenor Company as a full-time Parts and Office Manager from April 2021 until August 31, 2022, when the employer discharged her from the employment for consuming alcohol on the job in violation of company policy. The claimant concedes she consumed alcohol at work on August 27, 2022, but makes the dubious assertion she did so only to confirm a coworker was consuming alcohol. On the day of the discharge, prior to the discharge, the claimant possessed beer in her lunch box, which the claimant had placed in the work refrigerator. The claimant concedes she possessed the alcohol in that manner, but makes the dubious assertion it for a trip to a friend's house after work. The employer had a written policy that prohibited possession and consumption of alcohol on company premises. The claimant was aware of the policy at the time she violated the policy.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.5(2)(a) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

2. Discharge for misconduct. If the department finds that the individual has been discharged for misconduct in connection with the individual's employment:

a. The disqualification shall continue until the individual has worked in and has been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times the individual's weekly benefit amount, provided the individual is otherwise eligible.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.32(1)a provides:

Discharge for misconduct.

(1) Definition.

a. "Misconduct" is defined as a deliberate act or omission by a worker which constitutes a material breach of the duties and obligations arising out of such worker's contract of employment. Misconduct as the term is used in the disqualification provision as being limited to conduct evincing such willful or wanton disregard of an employer's interest as is found in deliberate violation or disregard of standards of behavior which the employer has the right to expect of employees, or in carelessness or negligence of such degree of recurrence as to manifest equal culpability, wrongful intent or evil design, or to show an intentional and substantial disregard of the employer's interests or of the employee's duties and obligations to the employer. On the other hand mere inefficiency, unsatisfactory conduct, failure in good performance as the result of inability or incapacity, inadvertencies or ordinary negligence in isolated instances, or good faith errors in judgment or discretion are not to be deemed misconduct within the meaning of the statute.

This definition has been accepted by the Iowa Supreme Court as accurately reflecting the intent of the legislature. Huntoon v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 275 N.W.2d 445, 448 (Iowa 1979). The Iowa Legislature recently codified the definition of misconduct and included a list of conduct that constitutes disqualifying misconduct in connection the employment. See Iowa Code section 96.5(2)(d). The list of conduct constituting misconduct includes "Consumption of alcohol...on the employer's premises in violation of the employer's employment policies. See Iowa Code section 96.5(2)(d)(4).

The employer has the burden of proof in this matter. See Iowa Code section 96.6(2). Misconduct must be substantial in order to justify a denial of unemployment benefits. Misconduct serious enough to warrant the discharge of an employee is not necessarily serious enough to warrant a denial of unemployment benefits. See Lee v. Employment Appeal Board, 616 N.W.2d 661 (Iowa 2000). The focus is on deliberate, intentional, or culpable acts by the employee. See Gimbel v. Employment Appeal Board, 489 N.W.2d 36, 39 (Iowa Ct. App. 1992).

While past acts and warnings can be used to determine the magnitude of the current act of misconduct, a discharge for misconduct cannot be based on such past act(s). The termination of employment must be based on a current act. See 871 IAC 24.32(8). In determining whether the conduct that prompted the discharge constituted a "current act," the administrative law judge considers the date on which the conduct came to the attention of the employer and the date on which the employer notified the claimant that the conduct subjected the claimant to possible discharge. See also Greene v. EAB, 426 N.W.2d 659, 662 (Iowa App. 1988).

Allegations of misconduct or dishonesty without additional evidence shall not be sufficient to result in disqualification. If the employer is unwilling to furnish available evidence to corroborate the allegation, misconduct cannot be established. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.32(4).

The evidence in the record establishes a discharge for misconduct in connection with the employment. On August 27 and August 31, 2022, the claimant knowingly and intentionally violated the employer's written policy that prohibited her from possessing or consuming alcohol on company premises. The claimant is disqualified for benefits until the claimant has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to 10 times the claimant's weekly benefit amount. The claimant must meet all other eligibility requirements. The employer's account shall not be charged for benefits.

DECISION:

The September 22, 2022 (reference 01) decision is AFFIRMED. The claimant was discharged on August 31, 2022 for misconduct in connection with the employment. The claimant is disqualified for benefits until the claimant has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to 10 times the claimant's weekly benefit amount. The claimant must meet all other eligibility requirements. The employer's account shall not be charged for benefits.
