APPEAL 23A-UI-01130-ED-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

HAGIE MANUFACTURING COMPANY
Employer

OC: 01/08/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able to and Available

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The Claimant filed an appeal from the January 30, 2023, (reference 05) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based upon claimant not being able and available to work. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on February 21, 2023. The claimant, Penny Lewis, did not participate. The employer, Hagie Manufacturing Company, participated through Mr. Maxheimer. Claimant's exhibits 1-40 were admitted.

ISSUES:

Was the claimant able to and available for work?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant was hired on September 28, 2020 as a full-time welder. Her immediate supervisor was Nate Clarion and Christopher Johnson. Claimant is required to use an air breathing device for 8-10 hours per day as well as cleaning activities. The claimant injured her neck and was under a doctor's care until October 14, 2022. The claimant was released with restrictions on October 14, 2022, however, the employer had no positions available to accommodate the restrictions. The claimant was released fully back to work with no restrictions on January 16, 2023 at which time she returned to work on a full-time basis.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that the claimant was not able to work and available for work for the period in question.

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37", paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(2) provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(2) Available for work. The availability requirement is satisfied when an individual is willing, able, and ready to accept suitable work which the individual does not have good cause to refuse, that is, the individual is genuinely attached to the labor market. Since, under unemployment insurance laws, it is the availability of an individual that is required to be tested, the labor market must be described in terms of the individual. A labor market for an individual means a market for the type of service which the individual offers in the geographical area in which the individual offers the service. Market in that sense does not mean that job vacancies must exist; the purpose of unemployment insurance is to compensate for lack of job vacancies. It means only that the type of services which an individual is offering is generally performed in the geographical area in which the individual is offering the services.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(35) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(35) Where the claimant is not able to work and is under the care of a medical practitioner and has not been released as being able to work.

For an unemployed individual to be eligible to receive benefits, she must be able to work, available for work, and actively seeking work as required by the unemployment insurance law. Iowa Code § 96.4(3). The burden is on the claimant to establish that she is able and available for work within the meaning of the statute. Iowa Code § 96.6(2); Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22. In this case, the claimant was not still under a doctor's care without a medical release until January 16, 2023. Accordingly, benefits are denied for the time in question.

DECISION:

The January 30, 2023, (reference 05) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. The claimant is not able to work and available for work until her medical release January 16, 2023. Benefits are denied.
