EMPLOYMENT APPEAL BOARD
DECISION

SECTION: 10A.601 Employment Appeal Board Review

D E C I S I O N

FINDINGS OF FACT:

A hearing in the above matter was scheduled for July 21, 2015 in which the issues to be determined were whether the Claimant was on an approved leave of absence; laid off; discharged for misconduct; or whether the Claimant voluntarily left for good cause attributable to the employer.

At the hearing, the administrative law judge did not question whether or not the letter regarding the Claimant's test results was sent by certified mail. The administrative law judge's decision was issued July 22, 2015, which determined that the Claimant was eligible for benefits because he "...was suspended and placed on leave of absence from employment for no disqualifying reason..." The administrative law judge's decision has been appealed to the Employment Appeal Board.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 10A.601(4) (2015) provides:

5. Appeal board review. The appeal board may on its own motion affirm, modify, or set aside any decision of an administrative law judge on the basis of the evidence previously submitted in such case, or direct the taking of additional evidence, or may permit any of the parties to such decision to initiate further appeals before it. The appeal board shall permit such further appeal by any of the parties interested in a decision of an administrative law judge and by the representative whose decision has been overruled or modified by the administrative law judge. The appeal board shall review the case pursuant to rules adopted by the appeal board. The appeal board shall promptly notify the interested parties of its findings and decision.

The Employment Appeal Board concludes that the record as it stands is insufficient for the Board to issue a decision on the merits of the case. As the Iowa Court of Appeals noted in Baker v. Employment Appeal Board, 551 N.W. 2d 646 (Iowa App. 1996), the administrative law judge has a heightened duty to develop the record from available evidence and testimony given the administrative law judge's presumed expertise. There was no evidence adduced as to whether the letter the Claimant received was sent by certified mail in accordance with Iowa law. Since we do not know the answers to this question, the Board must remand this matter for the limited purpose of taking additional evidence to determine the answer to that question.

DECISION:

The decision of the administrative law judge dated July 22, 2015 is not vacated. This matter is remanded to an administrative law judge in the Unemployment Insurance Appeals Bureau, for further development of the record consistent with this decision, unless otherwise already addressed. The administrative law judge shall conduct a hearing following due notice, if necessary. If a hearing is held, then the administrative law judge shall issue a decision which provides the parties appeal rights.
