APPEAL NO: 13A-UI-01016-DWT

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

JOHN DEERE CONSTR EQUIP CO

Employer

OC: 12/09/12

Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest

871 IAC 26.8(5) – Decision on the Record

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer appealed a representative's January 22, 2013 determination (reference 03) that held the claimant eligible to receive benefits and the employer's account subject to charge for a total of $16.22 because the employer had not filed a timely protest. A telephone hearing was held on February 27, 2013. Neither the claimant nor the employer responded to the hearing notice or participated in the hearing. Based on the administrative file and the law, the following findings of fact, reasoning and conclusions of law and decision are entered.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The parties were properly notified of the scheduled hearing on this appeal. Both the claimant and the employer failed to provide a telephone number at which they could be reached for the hearing. The employer, the appealing party, did not participate in the hearing or request a postponement of the hearing as required by the hearing notice.

A careful review of the information in the administrative file has been conducted to determine whether the unemployment insurance decision should be affirmed.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The unemployment insurance rules provide that when a party who has received due notice is unable to attend a hearing or request postponement within the prescribed time due to emergency or other good cause, the administrative law judge may, if no decision has been issued, reopen the record and schedule another hearing. If a decision has been issued, the decision may be vacated upon the administrative law judge's own motion or at the request of a party within 15 days after the mailing date of the decision and in the absence of an appeal to the Employment Appeal Board or the Department of Inspections and Appeals. If a decision is vacated, notice shall be given to all parties of a new hearing to be held and decided by another administrative law judge. Once a decision has become final as provided by statute, the administrative law judge officer has no jurisdiction to reopen the record or vacate the decision. 871 IAC 26.8(3). The rules further provide that a request to reopen a record or vacate a decision may be heard ex parte by an administrative law judge. The granting or denial of such a request may be used as a grounds for appeal to the Employment Appeal Board or the Department of Inspections and Appeals after the administrative law judge has issued a final decision in the case. 871 IAC 26.8(4). Finally, if good cause for postponement or reopening has not been shown, the administrative law judge shall make a decision based upon whatever evidence is properly in the record. 871 IAC 26.8(5).

The administrative law judge has carefully reviewed the information in the administrative file in the record and concludes that the unemployment insurance decision previously entered in this case is correct and should be affirmed.

Pursuant to the rule, the employer must make a written request to the administrative law judge that the hearing be reopened within 15 days after the mailing date of this decision. The written request should be mailed to the administrative law judge at the address listed at the beginning of this decision and must explain the emergency or other good cause that prevented the employer from participating in the hearing at its scheduled time.

DECISION:

The representative's January 22, 2013 determination (reference 03) is affirmed. The determination that held the claimant qualified to receive benefits based on this employment separation and the employer's account subject to a maximum charge of $16.22 in the claimant's current benefit year remains in effect. This decision will become final unless a written request establishing good cause to reopen the record is made to the administrative law judge within 15 days of the date of this decision.
