ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 12/20/20
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able to and Available for Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant/appellant, Tyler Schott, filed an appeal from the March 2, 2021 (reference 01) Iowa Workforce Development (“IWD”) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on May 18, 2021. The claimant participated. The employer participated through Aaron Ryan. Danielle Gefaller attended as an observer.

The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative records. Employer Exhibit 1 was admitted. Based on the evidence, the arguments presented, and the law, the administrative law judge enters the following findings of fact, reasoning and conclusions of law, and decision.

ISSUE:

Was the claimant able to and available for work December 20, 2021?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Claimant has worked for employer since 2014 and is still employed as a full-time make up air supervisor. Employer sent claimant home on December 21, 2020 and directed him to stay home through January 3, 2021 when claimant reported his wife had tested positive for COVID-19. Claimant was not advised to be off work due to his own illness or to self-quarantine by a medical professional. Claimant was absent due to employer’s internal policy, which relied upon CDC guidelines for employees who may have been exposed to COVID-19. Claimant had no symptoms. Claimant returned to work January 4, 2021. Claimant reported wages earned on December 21, 2020 and vacation earned on December 24, 25 and January 1, 2021. Claimant would have worked if the employer would have allowed.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant is eligible for benefits:

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in § 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", subparagraph 1, or temporarily unemployed as defined in § 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of § 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under § 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(10) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(10) The claimant requested and was granted a leave of absence, such period is deemed to be a period of voluntary unemployment and shall be considered ineligible for benefits for such period.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 24.22(2) provides:

Available for work. The availability requirement is satisfied when an individual is willing, able, and ready to accept suitable work which the individual does not have good cause to refuse, that is, the individual is genuinely attached to the labor market. Since, under unemployment insurance laws, it is the availability of an individual that is required to be tested, the labor market must be described in terms of the individual. A labor market for an individual means a market for the type of service which the individual offers in the geographical area in which the individual offers the service. Market in that sense does not mean that job vacancies must exist; the purpose of unemployment insurance is to compensate for lack of job vacancies. It means only that the type of services which an individual is offering is generally performed in the geographical area in which the individual is offering the services.

j. Leave of absence. A leave of absence negotiated with the consent of both parties, employer and employee, is deemed a period of voluntary unemployment for the employee-individual, and the individual is considered ineligible for benefits for the period.

(1) If at the end of a period or term of negotiated leave of absence the employer fails to reemploy the employee-individual, the individual is considered laid off and eligible for benefits.

(2) If the employee-individual fails to return at the end of the leave of absence and subsequently becomes unemployed the individual is considered as having voluntarily quit and therefore is ineligible for benefits.

(3) The period or term of a leave of absence may be extended, but only if there is evidence that both parties have voluntarily agreed.

(emphasis added).

For an unemployed individual to be eligible to receive benefits, he must be able to work, available for work, and actively seeking work as required by the unemployment insurance law.

Iowa Code § 96.4(3). The burden is on the claimant to establish that he is able and available for work within the meaning of the statute. Iowa Code § 96.6(2); Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22.

Claimant in this case was able to and available for work. Employer, not claimant, initiated a leave of absence for claimant, based upon employer policy. It was not based upon claimant's illness or a medical professional directing claimant to be off work. Claimant was not voluntarily unemployed. Claimant is eligible for benefits, provided he meets all other requirements.

DECISION:

The March 2, 2021 (reference 01) initial decision is REVERSED. Claimant is able to and available for work effective December 20, 2020. Benefits are allowed, provided he is otherwise eligible.
