APPEAL 23A-UI-06977-AR-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 04/09/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.23(10) – Voluntary Leave of Absence
Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On July 13, 2023, the claimant filed an appeal from the May 15, 2023, (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based upon the determination that claimant was on an approved leave of absence. The claimant received proper notice of the hearing. The employer did not receive the hearing notice for this hearing, but it did receive notice of the companion hearing. On the record, the employer waived proper notice of the hearing and the issues on appeal. A telephone hearing was held on August 1, 2023. Appeal numbers 23A-UI-06977-AR-T and 23A-UI-06978-AR-T were heard together and created one record. The claimant, Amy S. Lehman, participated personally. The employer, Kwik Trip Inc., participated through Store Leader Jonathan Miller. Employer's Exhibits 1 through 6 were admitted. Department's Exhibit D-1 was admitted. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is claimant's appeal timely?
Is claimant able to and available for work effective April 9, 2023?
Is claimant on an approved leave of absence?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was employed part time as a guest service coworker from May 1, 2021, until this employment ended on June 14, 2023, when she was discharged.

On March 22, 2023, after suffering a non-work-related injury that required claimant to use crutches, claimant began leave because the employer could not accommodate her use of crutches. Claimant returned to work May 16, 2023, at the same position, hours, and wages as prior to the leave.

Claimant filed a claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of April 9, 2023, but she filed no weekly continuing claims for benefits until after her separation from this employer in June 2023. Claimant filed her claim for unemployment benefits effective April 9, 2023, because of a separation from a different employer.

An unemployment insurance decision was mailed to claimant's last known address of record on May 15, 2023. She did not receive that decision. The decision contained a warning that an appeal was due by May 25, 2023. Claimant filed her appeal on July 13, 2023, after she received the decision regarding her separation from this employment. That appeal was docketed for this decision as well.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that claimant was not able to and available for work because she was on an approved leave of absence.

The first issue to be considered in this appeal is whether the appeal is timely. The administrative law judge determines it is.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982).

The appellant did not have an opportunity to appeal the fact-finder's decision because the decision was not received. Without notice of a disqualification, no meaningful opportunity for appeal exists. See Smith v. Iowa Emp't Sec. Comm'n, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973). The claimant filed an appeal within a reasonable period of time after discovering the disqualification. Therefore, the appeal shall be accepted as timely.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37", paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.22(2) provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(2) Available for work. The availability requirement is satisfied when an individual is willing, able, and ready to accept suitable work which the individual does not have good cause to refuse, that is, the individual is genuinely attached to the labor market. Since, under unemployment insurance laws, it is the availability of an individual that is required to be tested, the labor market must be described in terms of the individual. A labor market for an individual means a market for the type of service which the individual offers in the geographical area in which the individual offers the service. Market in that sense does not mean that job vacancies must exist; the purpose of unemployment insurance is to compensate for lack of job vacancies. It means only that the type of services which an individual is offering is generally performed in the geographical area in which the individual is offering the services.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.23(10) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(10) The claimant requested and was granted a leave of absence, such period is deemed to be a period of voluntary unemployment and shall be considered ineligible for benefits for such period.

For an unemployed individual to be eligible to receive benefits, she must be able to work, available for work, and actively seeking work as required by the unemployment insurance law. Iowa Code § 96.4(3). The burden is on the claimant to establish that she is able and available for work within the meaning of the statute. Iowa Code § 96.6(2); Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22. In this case, claimant was on a leave of absence from the effective date of her claim until May 16, 2023. She did not file weekly continuing claims during this time. Benefits are denied though May 20, 2023.

DECISION:

The claimant's appeal is accepted as timely. The May 15, 2023, (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. The claimant is not able to work and available for work between April 9, 2023, and May 20, 2023. Benefits are denied for that period.
