ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS DIVISION, UI APPEALS BUREAU

WAYNE SMITH
Claimant

QPS EMPLOYMENT GROUP INC
Employer

APPEAL 22A-UI-10447-S2-T
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 04/03/22
Claimant: Respondent (2)

Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a – Discharge for Misconduct
Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit
Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.10 – Employer/Representative Participation Fact-finding Interview

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer filed an appeal from the April 21, 2022, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits based upon claimant's voluntary quit. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on June 9, 2022. Claimant Wayne Smith did not participate. Employer QPS Employment Group, Inc. participated through branch manager Kelly Lochray and was represented by Jessica Segner. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Did claimant voluntarily quit the employment with good cause attributable to employer?
Has the claimant been overpaid unemployment insurance benefits, and if so, can the repayment of those benefits to the agency be waived?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm. Claimant began his employment on May 29, 2019. Claimant received a job assignment from the employer to work full time as a production worker at Industrial Container Services. This job assignment began September 29, 2021, and ended on October 27, 2021. The reason the job assignment ended was because on October 28, 2021, claimant notified employer he would not be returning to work. Claimant refused to provide a reason, but assured employer it was not work-related.

The administrative record reflects that claimant has not received any unemployment benefits since his separation. Employer participated in the fact-finding interview through witness Jessica Segner.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25 provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(37) The claimant will be considered to have left employment voluntarily when such claimant gave the employer notice of an intention to resign and the employer accepted such resignation. This rule shall also apply to the claimant who was employed by an educational institution who has declined or refused to accept a new contract or reasonable assurance of work for a successive academic term or year and the offer of work was within the purview of the individual's training and experience.

Claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980).

Claimant's verbal resignation is both evidence of his intention to sever the employment relationship and an overt act of carrying out his intention. Claimant provided no testimony or evidence as to why he left his employment. He has failed to establish his leaving was for good cause. While claimant's leaving may have been based upon good personal reasons, it was not for a good-cause reason attributable to the employer according to Iowa law. Benefits are denied.

Because no benefits were paid to claimant, the issues of overpayment, repayment and chargeability are moot.

DECISION:

The April 21, 2022, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. The claimant voluntarily left his employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as he has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times his weekly benefit amount, provided he is otherwise eligible. The issues of overpayment, repayment and charges are moot.
