APPEAL 20A-UI-02955-DB-T
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 12/22/19
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1)j – Voluntary Quitting – Temporary Employment
Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Overpayment of Benefits
PL 116-136 Section 2104(B) – Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant/appellant filed an appeal from the April 7, 2020 (reference 06) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits to the claimant based upon her being discharged from employment. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on May 5, 2020. The claimant, Cassandra L. Baker, participated personally. Witness Julie Andersen participated on behalf of the claimant. The employer, Express Services Inc., did not participate. Claimant waived due notice of the potential issue of overpayment of Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation benefits pursuant to PL 116-136 Section 2104(B). The hearing was consolidated with Appeal No. 20A-UI-02954-DB-T. The administrative law judge took official notice of the claimant's administrative records.

ISSUES:

Did the claimant voluntarily quit by not reporting for an additional work assignment within three business days of the end of the last assignment?
Is the claimant overpaid benefits?
Is the claimant overpaid Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant was a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm. She was placed into a full-time job assignment at CDI. Beginning March 1, 2020, she was working a reduced schedule due to lack of work. Then, her last day worked on the job was Friday, March 13, 2020 because CDI ended the job assignment due to lack of work. Ms. Andersen notified the claimant about the end of her job assignment. Claimant requested additional work but there were no job placements available.

Claimant's administrative records establish that she has received unemployment insurance benefits of $1,898.00 from March 1, 2020 through April 25, 2020. Claimant has also received $2,400.00 in Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation benefits from March 29, 2020 through April 25, 2020.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the separation was not disqualifying. Benefits are allowed, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible.

Iowa Code § 96.5(1)(j) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department. But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

j. (1) The individual is a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment and who seeks reassignment. Failure of the individual to notify the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment within three working days of the completion of each employment assignment under a contract of hire shall be deemed a voluntary quit unless the individual was not advised in writing of the duty to notify the temporary employment firm upon completion of an employment assignment or the individual had good cause for not contacting the temporary employment firm within three working days and notified the firm at the first reasonable opportunity thereafter.

(2) To show that the employee was advised in writing of the notification requirement of this paragraph, the temporary employment firm shall advise the temporary employee by requiring the temporary employee, at the time of employment with the temporary employment firm, to read and sign a document that provides a clear and concise explanation of the notification requirement and the consequences of a failure to notify. The document shall be separate from any contract of employment and a copy of the signed document shall be provided to the temporary employee.

(3) For the purposes of this paragraph:

(a) "Temporary employee" means an individual who is employed by a temporary employment firm to provide services to clients to supplement their workforce during absences, seasonal workloads, temporary skill or labor market shortages, and for special assignments and projects.

(b) "Temporary employment firm" means a person engaged in the business of employing temporary employees.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(15) provides:

Employee of temporary employment firm.

a. The individual is a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm within three days of completion of an employment assignment and seeks reassignment under the contract of hire. The employee must be advised by the employer of the notification requirement in writing and receive a copy.

b. The individual shall be eligible for benefits under this subrule if the individual has good cause for not contacting the employer within three days and did notify the employer at the first reasonable opportunity.

c. Good cause is a substantial and justifiable reason, excuse or cause such that a reasonable and prudent person, who desired to remain in the ranks of the employed, would find to be adequate justification for not notifying the employer. Good cause would include the employer's going out of business; blinding snow storm; telephone lines down; employer closed for vacation; hospitalization of the claimant; and other substantial reasons.

d. Notification may be accomplished by going to the employer's place of business, telephoning the employer, faxing the employer, or any other currently acceptable means of communications. Working days means the normal days in which the employer is open for business.

The plain language of the statute allows benefits for a claimant "who notifies the temporary employment firm of completion of an assignment and who seeks reassignment." Since the claimant requested additional work within three working days of the notification of the end of the assignment, and there was no work available, no disqualification is imposed.

As such, the separation is not disqualifying. Benefits are allowed, provided claimant is otherwise eligible. Because benefits are allowed, the issue of overpayment of benefits is moot and the issue of overpayment of Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation is moot.

DECISION:

The April 7, 2020 (reference 06) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. The claimant's separation was not disqualifying. Benefits are allowed, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
