APPEAL 23A-UI-11345-DZ-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 11/12/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.4(4) – Monetary Eligibility and Subsequent Benefit Year

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Deborah L. Vanzuiden, the claimant/appellant,¹ appealed the Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) November 30, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance (UI) decision. IWD denied Ms. Vanzuiden REGULAR (state) UI benefits as of November 12, 2023 because IWD concluded that no employer had not paid her at least eight times her prior benefit year's weekly benefit amount (WBA) in insured wages during or after her prior benefit year. On December 8, 2023, the Iowa Department of Inspections, Appeals, and Licensing (DIAL), UI Appeals Bureau mailed a notice of hearing to Ms. Vanzuiden for a telephone hearing scheduled for December 21, 2023.

The undersigned administrative law judge held a telephone hearing on December 21, 2023. Ms. Vanzuiden participated in the hearing personally. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Did any employer pay Ms. Vanzuiden insured wages of at least eight times her prior benefit year's WBA during or after the previous benefit year to become eligible for a second benefit year?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Ms. Vanzuiden applied for REGULAR (state) UI benefits effective November 6, 2022 (first benefit year). IWD sent Ms. Vanzuiden a monetary record (aka green sheet) that acknowledged her base period wages and set her weekly UI benefit amount at $624.00. Ms. Vanzuiden applied for UI benefits in November 2022 because her assignment from employer Genuent as a training and development specialist ended. IWD paid Ms. Vanzuiden REGULAR (state) UI benefits during her first benefit year. Ms. Vanzuiden's first benefit year expired on November 5, 2023.

Ms. Vanzuiden applied for REGULAR (state) UI benefits again effective November 12, 2023 (second benefit year). IWD sent Ms. Vanzuiden a monetary record that acknowledged her base period wages and set her weekly UI benefit amount at $659.00. No employer has paid Ms.

¹ Claimant is the person who filed the UI claim with IWD. Appellant is the person or employer who filed the appeal.

Vanzuiden any insured wages since her November 2022 separation from employment with employer Genuent.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes Ms. Vanzuiden is not eligible to receive REGULAR (state) UI benefits as of November 12, 2023, the beginning of her subsequent (second) benefit year.

Iowa Code section 96.4(4)(a) and (c) provide:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

4. a. The individual has been paid wages for insured work during the individual's base period in an amount at least one and one-quarter times the wages paid to the individual during that quarter of the individual's base period in which the individual's wages were highest; provided that the individual has been paid wages for insured work totaling at least three and five-tenths percent of the statewide average annual wage for insured work, computed for the preceding calendar year if the individual's benefit year begins on or after the first full week in July and computed for the second preceding calendar year if the individual's benefit year begins before the first full week in July, in that calendar quarter in the individual's base period in which the individual's wages were highest, and the individual has been paid wages for insured work totaling at least one-half of the amount of wages required under this paragraph in the calendar quarter of the base period in which the individual's wages were highest, in a calendar quarter in the individual's base period other than the calendar quarter in which the individual's wages were highest. The calendar quarter wage requirements shall be rounded to the nearest multiple of ten dollars.

c. If the individual has drawn benefits in any benefit year, the individual must during or subsequent to that year, work in and be paid wages for insured work totaling at least eight times the individual's weekly benefit amount, as a condition to receive benefits in the next benefit year.

Iowa Code Section 96.1A(14), (16) and (26) provides

14. "Employer" means:

a. For purposes of this chapter with respect to any calendar year after December 31, 2018, any employing unit which in any calendar quarter in either the current or preceding calendar year paid wages for service in employment.

16. "Employment".

a. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, "employment" means service, including service in interstate commerce, performed for wages or under any contract of hire, written or oral, expressed or implied.

...

26. "Insured work" means employment for employers.

Qualifying wages are those subject to contribution under a state employment security law or wages subject to tax under the federal Unemployment Tax Act.²

In this case, Ms. Vanzuiden has not met the eight-times-weekly-benefit-amount minimum earnings requirement, so she is not eligible for UI benefits during her second benefit year that was effective November 12, 2023. Ms. Vanzuiden applied for UI benefits in an earlier benefit year and received UI benefits during that first benefit year. To meet the eight-times-weekly-benefit-amount minimum earnings requirement, Ms. Vanzuiden would need to have been employed and to have been paid eight times her $624.00 weekly UI benefit amount after she no longer worked at Genuent in November 2022. That amount is $4,992.00. Because Ms. Vanzuiden has not received at least $4,992.00 in wages from insured work after November 6, 2022, the beginning of her first benefit year, she is not eligible for UI benefits during her second benefit year.

DECISION:

The November 30, 2023 (reference 01) UI decision is AFFIRMED. Ms. Vanzuiden does not meet the eight-times-weekly-benefit-amount minimum earnings requirement to be monetarily eligible for UI benefits during her second benefit year. Ms. Vanzuiden is not eligible for UI benefits as of November 12, 2023.
