Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed an appeal from the August 29, 2023, (reference 07) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits for the one week ending July 29, 2023, based on a determination that claimant had no transportation and was not able to and available for work. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on September 21, 2023. The claimant participated personally. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Was the claimant able to and available for work during the week ending July 29, 2023?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant worked as a full-time cook for Human Learning Systems, LLC, from November 5, 2022 until her employment ended on May 30, 2023. During claimant's employment with Human Learning Systems, LLC, claimant never owned a vehicle. Rather, claimant walked to work, as the employer's premises was less than one mile from claimant's home. In addition to walking to-and-from work, claimant regularly used Western Iowa Transit whenever she needed to go somewhere that was too far for her to walk.

Since filing her claim for benefits effective June 4, 2023, claimant has never owned a vehicle. Claimant has been actively searching for work in and around Denison, Iowa. The jobs claimant has applied for are jobs that are within walking distance of claimant's home or jobs that are accessible through public transportation.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that the claimant was able to work and available for work during the week that ended July 29, 2023.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(10) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(4) If the means of transportation by an individual was lost from the individual's residence to the area of the individual's usual employment, the individual will be deemed not to have met the availability requirements of the law. However, an individual shall not be disqualified for restricting employability to the area of usual employment. See subrule 24.24(7).

For an unemployed individual to be eligible to receive benefits, she must be able to work, available for work, and actively seeking work as required by the unemployment insurance law. Iowa Code § 96.4(3). The burden is on the claimant to establish that she is able and available for work within the meaning of the statute. Iowa Code § 96.6(2); Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22. In this case, claimant testified that the jobs she has applied for are within walking distance or are accessible by public transportation. Claimant has no other barriers to employment, and she has actively and earnestly been seeking work. Accordingly, benefits are allowed.

DECISION:

The August 29, 2023, (reference 07) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. The claimant was able to work and available for work from July 23, 2023 through July 29, 2023. Benefits are allowed.
