ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 11/06/22
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.5-10 – Authorization to Work in the United States
Iowa Code § 96.4-3 – Able and Available
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)(e) – Able & Available – Report as Directed by Department
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23 (11) – Failure to Report
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.3 – Able & Available – Identity Verification
Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On May 8, 2023, the claimant appealed an Iowa Workforce Development dated February 9, 2023, reference 11, that concluded claimant is ineligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits because claimant did not provide proof he is a citizen or legally authorized to work in the United States. A telephone hearing was held on May 25, 2023, pursuant to due notice. The hearing was held together with appeal 23A-UI-04744-CS-T and combined into one record. The claimant participated personally through CTS Language Link Swahili Interpreter, Jedidah (Identification No. 14907). The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative file including the notice mailed to claimant on November 8, 2022, and the documents submitted by claimant to IWD on November 14, 2022.

ISSUE:

- I. Is claimant's appeal timely?
- II. The issue is whether the claimant was legally authorized to work in the United States. .
- III. Did the claimant fail to report as directed by a department representative?
- IV. Is the claimant able to and available for work?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The unemployment insurance decision was mailed to the appellant's address of record on February 9, 2023. The appellant did not receive the decision. The first notice of disqualification was a communication with IWD in May 2023 where they submitted a bill to claimant for the overpayment amount. The appeal was sent immediately.

The claimant was asked to provide evidence proving authorization to work in the United States by November 14, 2022. (Notice mailed November 8, 2022). The claimant provided a copy of his driver's license, his permanent resident card, and his social security card to IWD on November 14, 2022.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The first issue to be considered in this appeal is whether the appellant's appeal is timely. The administrative law judge determines it is.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant. The representative shall promptly examine the claim and any protest, take the initiative to ascertain relevant information concerning the claim, and, on the basis of the facts found by the representative, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and its maximum duration, and whether any disqualification shall be imposed. The claimant has the burden of proving that the claimant meets the basic eligibility conditions of section 96.4. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to section 96.5, except as provided by this subsection. The claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence showing that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsections 10 and 11, and has the burden of proving that a voluntary quit pursuant to section 96.5, subsection 1, was for good cause attributable to the employer and that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraphs "a" through "h". Unless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision. If an administrative law judge affirms a decision of the representative, or the appeal board affirms a decision of the administrative law judge allowing benefits, the benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which is thereafter taken, but if the decision is finally reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid and this relief from charges shall apply to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The appellant did not have an opportunity to appeal the fact-finder's decision because the decision was not received. Without notice of a disqualification, no meaningful opportunity for appeal exists. See Smith v. Iowa Emp't Sec. Comm'n, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973). The claimant filed an appeal within a reasonable period of time after discovering the disqualification. Therefore, the appeal shall be accepted as timely.

The next issue that must be determined is if claimant provided proof he is legally authorized to work in the United States. For the reasons that follow the administrative law judge concludes the claimant is authorized to work in the United States and is available for work.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Code section 96.5(10) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

10. Aliens—disqualified. For services performed by an alien unless such alien is an individual who was lawfully admitted for permanent residence at the time such services were performed, was lawfully present for the purpose of performing such services, or was permanently residing in the United States under color of law at the time such services were performed, including an alien who is lawfully present in the United States as a result of the application of the provisions of section 212(d)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act. Any data or information required of individuals applying for benefits to determine whether benefits are not payable to them because of their alien status shall be uniformly required from all applicants for benefits. In the case of an individual whose application for benefits would otherwise be approved, no determination that benefits to such individual are not payable because of the individual's alien status shall be made except upon a preponderance of the evidence.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.60(2)a-c provides:

Alien. Any person who is not a citizen or a national of the United States. A national is defined as a person who lives in mandates or trust territories administered by the United States and owes permanent allegiance to the United States. An alien is a person owing allegiance to another country or government.

(2) It is required that information designed to identify illegal nonresident aliens shall be requested of all claimants for benefits. This shall be accomplished by asking each claimant at the time the individual establishes a benefit year whether or not the individual is a citizen.

- a. If the response is "yes," no further proof is necessary and the claimant's records are to be marked accordingly.
- b. If the answer is "no," the claimant shall be requested to present documentary proof of legal residency. Any individual who does not show proof of legal residency at the time it is requested shall be disqualified from receiving benefits until such time as the required proof of the individual's status is brought to the local office. The principal documents showing legal entry for permanent residency are the Form I-94, Arrival and Departure Record, and the Forms I-151 and I-551, Alien Registration Receipt Card. These forms are issued by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services and should be accepted unless the proof is clearly faulty or there are reasons to doubt their authenticity. An individual will be required to provide the individual's alien registration number at the time of claim filing.
- c. Any or all documents presented to the department by an alien shall be subject to verification with the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services. The citizenship question shall be included on the initial claim form so that the response will be subject to the provisions of rule 871-25.10(96), prosecution on overpayments.

A claimant is considered to be available for work when proof of citizenship or work registration is provided. The claimant has provided evidence which would support a finding of authorized to work in the United States. The claimant is considered to be available for work. Benefits are allowed effective December 25, 2022, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible.

DECISION:

The appeal is timely.

The Iowa Workforce Development February 9, 2023 decision (reference 11) is REVERSED. Claimant is authorized to work in the United States. The claimant is considered to be available for work. Benefits are allowed effective December 25, 2022, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible.
