DECISION

UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS ARE ALLOWED IF OTHERWISE ELIGIBLE

The Employer appealed this case to the Employment Appeal Board. The members of the Employment Appeal Board reviewed the entire record. The Appeal Board, one member dissenting, finds the administrative law judge's decision is correct. The administrative law judge's Findings of Fact and Reasoning and Conclusions of Law are adopted by the Board as its own. The administrative law judge's decision is AFFIRMED.

DISSENTING OPINION OF MYRON R. LINN:

I respectfully dissent from the majority decision of the Employment Appeal Board; I would reverse the administrative law judge's decision. I would find the Claimant was not able to and available for work. I believe the Claimant was an employee of the Employer and not General Mills, the Employer's client. The Employer did not shut down operations and had continuing work for the Claimant, albeit with a different client, during the three-week shutdown at General Mills. The Claimant declined the work and chose to be not able to and available for reasonable work during the three weeks General Mills did not have work for him.
