At the time of the hearing, the claimant/appellant requested the appeal be withdrawn.

ISSUE:

Should the request to withdraw the appeal be granted?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having considered the evidence in the record, finds that: A request has been made by the appealing party to withdraw the appeal. The request was made verbally and recorded through the Appeals Bureau's conference call system at the time of the scheduled hearing. Consequences of withdrawing the appeal were explained to the claimant before the administrative law judge would accept the withdrawal.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

An appeal may be dismissed upon the request of a party or in the agency's discretion when the issue or issues on appeal have been resolved in the appellant's favor.

The administrative law judge has reviewed the records and files herein and concludes that the request of the appealing party to withdraw the appeal should be approved.
