Claimant

APPEAL 17A-UI-01026-JP-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 01/08/17
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)h(1) & (2) – Backdating

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from the January 24, 2017, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied the request to backdate the claim for benefits prior to January 8, 2017. After due notice was issued, a hearing was scheduled to be held by telephone conference call on February 20, 2017. Claimant participated. Claimant Exhibit A was admitted into evidence with no objection.

ISSUE:

Should the claim be backdated prior to January 8, 2017?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant filed a claim for benefits with an effective date of January 8, 2017, and desires to backdate the claim to January 1, 2017. Claimant's last day of work was December 23, 2016. Claimant used thirty-two hours of PTO for the week beginning December 25, 2016. Claimant averages between thirty-two and thirty-five hours per week. Claimant was still on a temporary layoff for the weeks beginning January 1, 2017 and January 8, 2017. For the week beginning January 1, 2017, claimant used 7.2 hours of PTO. Claimant performed eighteen hours work for the employer January 9 – 13, 2017. Claimant was back to her normal schedule of work on January 16, 2017.

Claimant filed her claim for benefits during the week beginning January 8, 2017 (around January 13, 2017); this was the first time claimant ever filed a claim for benefits and she testified was unfamiliar with the process. Claimant spoke to someone at Iowa Workforce Development approximately a week after she filed her claim and the employee told her she filed her claim too late.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's request to backdate the claim is denied.

Iowa Code § 96.6-1 provides:

1. Filing. Claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such regulations as the department may prescribe.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)h(1) and (2) provide:

Procedures for workers desiring to file a claim for benefits for unemployment insurance.

(1) Section 96.6 of the employment security law of Iowa states that claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such rules as the department prescribes. The department of workforce development accordingly prescribes:

h. Effective starting date for the benefit year.

(1) Filing for benefits shall be effective as of Sunday of the current calendar week in which, subsequent to the individual's separation from work, an individual reports in person at a workforce development center and registers for work in accordance with paragraph "a" of this rule.

(2) The claim may be backdated prior to the first day of the calendar week in which the claimant does report and file a claim for the following reasons:

Backdated prior to the week in which the individual reported if the individual presents to the department sufficient grounds to justify or excuse the delay;

There is scheduled filing in the following week because of a mass layoff;

The failure of the department to recognize the expiration of the claimant's previous benefit year;

The individual is given incorrect advice by a workforce development employee;

The claimant filed an interstate claim against another state which has been determined as ineligible;

Failure on the part of the employer to comply with the provisions of the law or of these rules;

Coercion or intimidation exercised by the employer to prevent the prompt filing of such claim;

Failure of the department to discharge its responsibilities promptly in connection with such claim, the department shall extend the period during which such claim may be filed to a date which shall be not less than one week after the individual has received appropriate notice of potential rights to benefits, provided, that no such claim may be filed after the 13 weeks subsequent to the end of the benefit year during which the week of unemployment occurred. In the event continuous jurisdiction is exercised under the provisions of the law, the department may, in its discretion, extend the period during which claims, with respect to week of unemployment affected by such redetermination, may be filed.

The October 2016, Unemployment Insurance Benefits Handbook, provides in pertinent part at pages 13 and 14:

CLAIM EFFECTIVE DATE

The effective date of all UI claims, regardless of filing method, will be the Sunday of the week in which the application was filed.

REACTIVATING A CLAIM

An individual can start and stop claiming weekly benefits as many times as necessary during the benefit year. This is called a break in reporting status. Any break in reporting requires the individual to file another initial claim application during the week he/she wants to start collecting benefits again. Any employment during the break must be reported.

The October 2016, Unemployment Insurance Benefits Handbook, provides in pertinent part at pages 19 and 20:

Filing Weekly Claims

How to File

After you file your initial claim, file weekly claims online at iowaworkforcedevelopment.gov for every week you are unemployed or your hours are reduced. You must file a weekly claim for any week that you want payment even if your eligibility is being decided or you have an appeal pending.

To request UI benefit payments during weeks of unemployment, individuals must certify they:

- are currently unemployed or working reduced hours
- are able to work and available for work
- have not refused any job offers or referrals to a job
- are actively looking for work (unless waived)
- are reporting any pay or pension payment

When to File

The current week is the week that just ended on Saturday. Individuals are strongly encouraged to file their weekly claims between the hours of 9:00 am Saturday through 11:30 pm Sunday. Failing to do so can potentially delay benefits.

IMPORTANT: You will receive confirmation that the claim has been processed successfully. If you don't receive confirmation, the process must be repeated until the claim has been successfully submitted.

Although this was claimant's first time filing for unemployment insurance benefits and she testified she was unfamiliar with the process, her failure to investigate availability of unemployment insurance benefits when not related to misinformation is not a good reason to delay filing a claim for benefits. Backdating is denied.

DECISION:

The January 24, 2017, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. Claimant's request to backdate the claim to January 1, 2017, is denied.
