APPEAL NO. 22A-UI-19788-JT-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 11/13/22
Claimant: Respondent (2)

Iowa Code Section 96.3(5) – Duration of Benefits
871 IAC 24.29 – Business Closing

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On December 15, 2022, Connie Brock (claimant) filed a timely appeal from the December 8, 2022 (reference 02) decision that denied the claimant's request to have benefits redetermined as being based on a layoff pursuant to a business closing. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on January 12, 2023. Claimant participated and presented additional testimony through Mark Anderson. The employer did not comply with the hearing notice instructions to call the designated toll-free number at the time of the hearing and did not participate. Exhibit A, the online appeal, was received into evidence. Iowa Workforce Development did not make relevant administrative records available for the appeal hearing.

ISSUE:

Whether the claimant was laid off pursuant to a business closing.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Connie Brock (claimant) was employed by Acord Transportation North, L.L.C. as a full-time office clerk at the employer's Webster City, Iowa terminal from 2016 until October 27, 2022, when the employer laid her off in connection with the employer's decision to discontinue terminal operations. On the last day of the claimant's employment, the employer notified the claimant of the layoff. The employer notified the claimant that that the employer was discontinuing operations at the Webster City terminal. The employer loaded equipment and supplies from the Webster City terminal and transported those items to the employer's facilities in one or more other states. The employer secured the terminal building. The employer did not sell or otherwise transfer the Webster City terminal operations or physical plant. The employer retains ownership of the Webster City location, but does not operate from that location.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.3(5)(a) provides:

a. Duration of benefits. The maximum total amount of benefits payable to an eligible individual during a benefit year shall not exceed the total of the wage credits accrued to the individual's account during the individual's base period, or sixteen times the individual's weekly benefit amount, whichever is the lesser. The director shall maintain a separate account for each individual who earns wages in insured work. The director shall compute wage credits for each individual by crediting the individual's account with one-third of the wages for insured work paid to the individual during the individual's base period. However, the director shall recompute wage credits for an individual who is laid off due to the individual's employer going out of business at the factory, establishment, or other premises at which the individual was last employed, by crediting the individual's account with one-half, instead of one-third, of the wages for insured work paid to the individual during the individual's base period. Benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the base period wage credits in the individual's account which have not been previously charged, in the inverse chronological order as the wages on which the wage credits are based were paid. However if the state "off" indicator is in effect and if the individual is laid off due to the individual's employer going out of business at the factory, establishment, or other premises at which the individual was last employed, the maximum benefits payable shall be extended to twenty-six times the individual's weekly benefit amount, but not to exceed the total of the wage credits accrued to the individual's account.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.29(2) provides:

(2) Going out of business means any factory, establishment, or other premises of an employer which closes its door and ceases to function as a business; however, an employer is not considered to have gone out of business at the factory, establishment, or other premises in any case in which the employer sells or otherwise transfers the business to another employer, and the successor employer continues to operate the business.

The evidence in the record establishes the claimant was laid off effective October 27, 2022 due to a business closing within the meaning of the law. The employer discontinued operations at the Webster City terminal where the claimant performed her duties. The employer did not sell or otherwise transfer operations at that location. The employer continues to not operate from the business premises where the claimant was employed. The claimant's benefit eligibility will be redetermined as being based on a layoff pursuant to a business closing.

DECISION:

The December 8, 2022 (reference 02) decision is REVERSED. The claimant was laid off effective October 27, 2022 pursuant to a business closing. The claimant's benefit eligibility shall be redetermined as being based on a layoff pursuant to a business closing.
