APPEAL 21A-UI-13259-AD-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OC: 04/11/21

Claimant: Respondent (2)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Eligibility – A&A – Able to, available for, work search

Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) – Total, partial unemployment

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(26) – Eligibility – A&A – Part-time same hours, wages

Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(2) – Charges – Same base period employment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On June 4, 2021, Sedona Staffing Inc. (employer/appellant) filed a timely appeal from the June 1, 2021 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits beginning April 11, 2021 based on a finding claimant was able and available for work during a short-term layoff.

A telephone hearing was held on August 9, 2021. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. Ethan Wilson (claimant/respondent) was not available at the number registered and did not participate. Employer participated by UI Administrator Colleen McGuinty.

Official notice was taken of the administrative record.

ISSUE(S):

- I. Is the claimant able to and available for work?
- II. Is the claimant totally, partially, or temporarily unemployed?
- III. Is the claimant still employed at the same hours and wages? Is the employer's account subject to charge? Is the claimant an on-call worker?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Claimant began working for employer on July 14, 2020. He most recently worked an assignment from October 22, 2020 until January 20, 2021. He was off at that time due to illness. This continued until he returned to work on April 22, 2021. He was back in his usual full-time position then and continuing until he was hired on permanently on July 2, 2021. Claimant filed a claim for benefits each week from the benefit week ending April 17, 2021 through the benefit week ending May 8, 2021.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the June 1, 2021 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits beginning April 11, 2021 is REVERSED. Claimant is not eligible for benefits in the weeks filed.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Code section 96.1A(37) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which either of the following apply:

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed temporarily unemployed if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Claimant was not able and available for work during the weeks filed. This is because he was either too ill to work or was working to such an extent as to be unavailable for other work. Benefits must therefore be denied during the weeks filed.

DECISION:

The June 1, 2021 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits beginning April 11, 2021 is REVERSED. Claimant is not eligible for benefits in the weeks filed.
