Section 96.5-7 – Vacation Pay Correctly Deducted

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed a timely appeal from a representative's decision dated September 24, 2014 (reference 04) which held claimant not eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits for the week ending August 2, 2014; finding that the claimant received or was entitled to receive vacation pay which equaled or exceeded his weekly benefit amount. After due notice was provided, a telephone hearing was held on October 27, 2014. Claimant participated. The employer participated by Mr. John Roloff, Human Resource Department Representative.

ISSUE:

At issue is whether the claimant received vacation pay for the week ending August 2, 2014.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having considered all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Nicholas Ulin was temporarily laid off work by John Deere & Company for the period of July 27, 2014 through August 1, 2014. The claimant did not receive wages or vacation pay for that period from John Deere & Company. It appears that the vacation pay issue may have been misinterpreted because Mr. Ulin did receive a vacation pay later for two weeks unrelated to his layoff for the one week period between July 27, 2014 and August 2, 2014. This period of time was the week that Mr. Ulin claimed and received unemployment insurance benefits.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that the vacation pay was not correctly deducted for the correct period.

Iowa Code § 96.5-7 provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits: ...

7. Vacation pay.

a. When an employer makes a payment or becomes obligated to make a payment to an individual for vacation pay, or for vacation pay allowance, or as pay in lieu of vacation, such payment or amount shall be deemed "wages" as defined in section 96.19, subsection 41, and shall be applied as provided in paragraph "c" hereof.

b. When, in connection with a separation or layoff of an individual, the individual's employer makes a payment or payments to the individual, or becomes obligated to make a payment to the individual as, or in the nature of, vacation pay, or vacation pay allowance, or as pay in lieu of vacation, and within ten calendar days after notification of the filing of the individual's claim, designates by notice in writing to the department the period to which the payment shall be allocated; provided, that if such designated period is extended by the employer, the individual may again similarly designate an extended period, by giving notice in writing to the department not later than the beginning of the extension of the period, with the same effect as if the period of extension were included in the original designation. The amount of a payment or obligation to make payment is deemed "wages" as defined in section 96.19, subsection 41, and shall be applied as provided in paragraph "c" of this subsection 7.

c. Of the wages described in paragraph "a" (whether or not the employer has designated the period therein described), or of the wages described in paragraph "b", if the period therein described has been designated by the employer as therein provided, a sum equal to the wages of such individual for a normal workday shall be attributed to, or deemed to be payable to the individual with respect to, the first and each subsequent workday in such period until such amount so paid or owing is exhausted. Any individual receiving or entitled to receive wages as provided herein shall be ineligible for benefits for any week in which the sums, so designated or attributed to such normal workdays, equal or exceed the individual's weekly benefit amount. If the amount so designated or attributed as wages is less than the weekly benefit amount of such individual, the individual's benefits shall be reduced by such amount.

d. Notwithstanding contrary provisions in paragraphs "a", "b", and "c", if an individual is separated from employment and is scheduled to receive vacation payments during the period of unemployment attributable to the employer and if the employer does not designate the vacation period pursuant to paragraph "b", then payments made by the employer to the individual or an obligation to make a payment by the employer to the individual for vacation pay, vacation pay allowance or pay in lieu of vacation shall not be deemed wages as defined in section 96.19, subsection 41, for any period in excess of one week and such payments or the value of such obligations shall not be deducted for any period in excess of one week from the unemployment benefits the individual is otherwise entitled to receive under this chapter. However, if the employer designates more than one week as the vacation period pursuant to paragraph "b", the vacation pay, vacation pay allowance, or pay in lieu of vacation shall be considered wages and shall be deducted from benefits.

e. If an employer pays or is obligated to pay a bonus to an individual at the same time the employer pays or is obligated to pay vacation pay, a vacation pay allowance, or pay in lieu of vacation, the bonus shall not be deemed wages for purposes of determining benefit eligibility and amount, and the bonus shall not be deducted from unemployment benefits the individual is otherwise entitled to receive under this chapter.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.16(3) provides:

(3) If the employer fails to properly notify the department within ten days after the notification of the filing of the claim that an amount of vacation pay, either paid or owed, is to be applied to a specific vacation period, the entire amount of the vacation pay shall be applied to the one-week period starting on the first workday following the last day worked as defined in subrule 24.16(4). However, if the individual does not claim benefits after layoff for the normal employer workweek immediately following the last day worked, then the entire amount of the vacation pay shall not be deducted from any week of benefits.

The evidence in the record establishes that Mr. Ulin did not receive vacation pay from John Deere & Company during the period of time, between July 27, 2014 and August 2, 2014, when Mr. Ulin claimed unemployment insurance benefits because he had been temporarily laid off from John Deere & Company for that week. Because the claimant was laid off and filed a claim for benefits and did not receive vacation pay attributable to that period of time, the claimant was eligible to receive the unemployment insurance benefits that he had received in the amount of $408.

DECISION:

The representative's decision dated September 24, 2014 (reference 04) is reversed. The vacation pay was not correctly deducted for this period. The claimant did not receive vacation pay for the week ending August 2, 2014 and was eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits for that week because he had been temporarily laid off from work.
