DEPARTMENT

OC: 10/08/17
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Available for work
Iowa Code § 96.4(7) – Reemployment services
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.6 – Profiling for reemployment services
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)e – Procedures for workers desiring to file a claim for benefits
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23 (11) – Failure to Report
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.11 – Eligibility review program

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant/appellant filed an appeal from the February 12, 2018 (reference 05) unemployment insurance decision that found claimant was not eligible for unemployment benefits because claimant failed to participate in a reemployment and eligibility assessment on December 15, 2017. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on March 13, 2018. The claimant, Christine D. Klapproth, participated personally. Karla Walters participated on behalf of Iowa Workforce Development (“IWD”). The administrative law judge took official notice of the claimant’s unemployment insurance benefits records.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant available for work effective December 10, 2017?
Did the claimant fail to report as directed by a department representative or offer justifiable cause for their failure to do so?
Did the claimant fail to participate in a reemployment and eligibility assessment appointment as directed or offer justifiable cause for their failure to do so?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The claimant filed an initial claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of October 8, 2017. Claimant was selected to participate in a reemployment and eligibility assessment on November 16, 2017, which she did. During the November 16, 2017 reemployment and eligibility assessment claimant met with Ms. Walters and discussed that she would need to attend a reemployment services orientation on December 14, 2017 at 1:30 p.m. During the meeting, Ms. Walters indicated claimant needed to complete the National Career Readiness Certificate ("NCRC") workshop but that the schedule for December was not yet available. Ms. Walters indicated to claimant that she would be sent a notice to report for the NCRC when she was able to schedule her for the workshop. Claimant was then scheduled to attend the NCRC workshop at 9:00 a.m. on December 14, 2017; however, no written or verbal notice was given to the claimant to report for the NCRC workshop on December 14, 2017. She did not report for the NCRC workshop at 9:00 a.m. on December 14, 2017 because did not know she had to report.

During the week of December 17, 2017 through December 23, 2017, claimant was employed by a temporary employment agency, Robert Half Corporation, for four days on December 19, 20, 21, and 22, 2017. Claimant worked approximately 32 hours for this employer during this week. It is noted that claimant was never paid benefits for the week-ending December 23, 2017 as she properly reported receiving wages in excess of her weekly benefit amount.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant did provide justifiable cause for her failure to report to participate in the NCRC workshop.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Code § 96.4(7) provides:

Required findings.

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

(7) The individual participates in reemployment services as directed by the department pursuant to a profiling system, established by the department, which identifies individuals who are likely to exhaust benefits and be in need of reemployment services.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.6 provides:

Profiling for reemployment services.

(1) The department of workforce development and the department of economic development will jointly provide a program which consists of profiling claimants and providing reemployment services.

(2) Profiling is a systematic procedure used to identify claimants who, because of certain characteristics, are determined to be permanently separated and most likely to exhaust benefits. Such claimants may be referred to reemployment services.

(3) Reemployment services may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- a. An assessment of the claimant's aptitude, work history, and interest.
- b. Employment counseling regarding reemployment approaches and plans.
- c. Job search assistance and job placement services.
- d. Labor market information.
- e. Job search workshops or job clubs and referrals to employers.
- f. Résumé preparation.
- g. Other similar services.

(4) As part of the initial intake procedure, each claimant shall be required to provide the information necessary for profiling and evaluation of the likelihood of needing reemployment assistance.

(5) The referral of a claimant and the provision of reemployment services is subject to the availability of funding and limitations of the size of the classes.

(6) A claimant shall participate in reemployment services when referred by the department unless the claimant establishes justifiable cause for failure to participate or the claimant has previously completed such training or services. Failure by the claimant to participate without justifiable cause shall disqualify the claimant from the receipt of benefits until the claimant participates in the reemployment services.

a. Justifiable cause for failure to participate is an important and significant reason which a reasonable person would consider adequate justification in view of the paramount importance of reemployment to the claimant.

This rule is intended to implement Iowa code section 96.4(7).

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)e provides:

Section 96.6 of the employment security law of Iowa states that claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such rules as the department prescribes. The department of workforce development accordingly prescribes:

(e) In order to maintain continuing eligibility for benefits during any continuous period of unemployment, an individual shall report as directed to do so by an authorized representative of the department. If the individual has moved to another locality, the individual may register and report in person at a workforce development center at the time previously specified for the reporting.

(1) An individual who files a weekly continued claim will have the benefit payment automatically deposited weekly in the individual's account at a financial institution or on a selected debit card.

(2) In order for an individual to receive payment by direct deposit, the individual must provide the financial institution selected by the department with the appropriate bank routing code number and a checking or savings account number.

(3) The department retains the ultimate authority to choose the method of reporting and payment.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(11) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(11) Failure to report as directed to workforce development in response to the notice which was mailed to the claimant will result in the claimant being deemed not to meet the availability requirements.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.11 provides in pertinent part:

Eligibility review program.

(1) Purpose. The eligibility review program is used to accelerate the individual's return to work and systematically review the individual's efforts toward the same goal.

(2) Individuals requiring an eligibility review.

a. Selected individuals claiming intrastate benefits and interstate benefits shall be required to complete the eligibility review Form 60-0232 at times determined by the department after they have filed an initial or additional claim.

(4) Eligibility review procedure.

a. After an individual has claimed a number of weeks of intrastate benefits as designated by the department, the workforce development center shall receive a computer selected list of individuals claiming benefits. The list shall be retained in the workforce development center so work search assistance and reemployment services can be provided as needed by the claimant.

b. No eligibility review will be performed on an individual unless monetary and nonmonetary eligibility are established.

c. An Eligibility Review Questionnaire shall be mailed or provided to the individual.

d. A copy of the Eligibility Review Questionnaire shall be sent to the workforce development center only on an individual who is in an active status at the time of its printing. If the individual fails to respond to the Eligibility Review Questionnaire within the designated period of time printed on the questionnaire, the workforce development center shall issue a Form 60-0131, Notice to Report. If the individual does not respond after this action has been taken, the department must issue an appropriate failure to report decision and lock the claim to prevent payment.

e. In cases of illness, injury or pregnancy, an unemployment insurance representative shall determine when and if a personal appearance shall be conducted. The representative shall be responsible for determining continuing eligibility or noneligibility of the individual based on the information obtained on the Form 60-0141, Request for Medical Report, or the facts presented during the interview. If the representative believes an additional Form 60-0141 may be needed, the representative shall initiate the request in the regular manner. Special attention shall be given to work search, i.e., number of contacts, types of contacts and the available job market information.

f. Before an administrative law judge can rule on a disqualification for failure to report at an Iowa workforce development center as directed, there must be evidence to show that the individual was required to report for an interview.

If the department identifies a claimant who is likely to exhaust benefits, in order to be eligible for weekly benefits a claimant must report as directed to participate in reemployment services. Iowa Code § 96.4(7). Unemployment insurance rules require a claimant to participate in reemployment services when referred by the department unless the claimant establishes justifiable cause for failure to participate or the claimant has previously completed such training or services. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.6(6). Failure by the claimant to participate without justifiable cause shall disqualify the claimant from the receipt of benefits until the claimant participates in the reemployment services. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.6(6). Justifiable cause for failure to participate is defined as “an important and significant reason which a reasonable person would consider adequate justification in view of the paramount importance of reemployment to the claimant.” Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.6(6). Failure to report or have justifiable cause for failing to report means the claimant has failed to meet the availability requirements of the law. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)e and 871-24.23(11).

Non-receipt of the notice is justifiable cause for failure to report as directed. The claimant is eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits effective December 10, 2017, because she did have justifiable cause for failing to participate in the NCRC workshop since no notice to report was sent to her.

However, claimant is ineligible for benefits for the one-week period beginning December 17, 2017 through December 23, 2017 due to her working the majority of the workweek for Robert Half Corporation. It is noted that claimant was never paid benefits for the week-ending December 23, 2017 as she properly reported receiving wages in excess of her weekly benefit amount.

DECISION:

The February 12, 2018 (reference 05) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. The claimant has provided justifiable cause for having failed to report for the NCRC workshop. Benefits are allowed effective December 10, 2017, so long as claimant is otherwise eligible.
