Iowa Code Section 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code Section 96.4(3) – Able & Available, Leave of Absence

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On June 10, 2022, Vickie Brown (claimant) filed a late appeal from the April 2, 2021 (reference 01) decision that denied regular state benefits effective September 20, 2020, based on the deputy's conclusion the claimant requested and was granted a leave of absence, was voluntarily unemployed, and was not available for work within the meaning of the law. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on August 1, 2022. Claimant participated. Dawn Rodemaker represented the employer. Nicki Balz was available to testify on behalf of the employer, but no employer witness testified. The hearing in this matter was consolidated with the hearing in Appeal Number 22A-UI-14129-JT-T. The claimant's mailed appeal, appeal envelopment and address change document were received into evidence as Exhibit A. The administrative law judge took official notice of the following Agency administrative records: the reference 01 and 02 decisions, DBRO, KPY1, PUA Claim Detail, and June 7, 2022 letter regarding "pay out" of PUA to offset overpaid regular benefits.

ISSUE:

Whether the appeal was timely. Whether there is good cause to treat the appeal as timely.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Vickie Brown (claimant) established an original claim for benefits that was effective September 20, 2020. Iowa Workforce Development set the weekly benefit amount for regular state benefits at $337.00. The claimant made weekly claims for the weeks ending September 26, 2020 and October 3, 2020 and then discontinued the claim. The claimant received $674.00 in regular state benefits for the two-week period of September 20, 2020 and October 3, 2020.

On April 2, 2021, Iowa Workforce Development mailed the April 2, 2022 (reference 01) decision to the claimant's Osage, Iowa last-known address of record. The reference 01 decision denied regular state benefits effective September 20, 2020, based on the deputy's conclusion the claimant requested and was granted a leave of absence, was voluntarily unemployed, and was not available for work within the meaning of the law. The reference 01 decision stated the decision would become final unless an appeal was postmarked by April 12, 2021 or was received by the Appeals Section by that date. The claimant received the reference 01 decision in a timely manner, prior to the deadline for appeal. The claimant did not take steps to file an appeal from the decision by the appeal deadline. Instead, after the appeal deadline regarding the reference 01 decision had passed, the claimant applied for and was approved for PUA benefits for the two-week period September 20, 2020 through October 3, 2020 in the weekly amount of $314.00.

On June 7, 2022, Iowa Workforce Development mailed the June 7, 2022 (reference 02) overpayment decision to the claimant's Osage, Iowa address of record. The claimant had changed residences in Osage, but had not updated her address of record with Iowa Workforce Development. Nonetheless the claimant received the reference 02 overpayment decision in a timely manner. The reference 02 decision held the claimant was overpaid $674.00 in regular state benefits for the two weeks between September 20, 2020 and October 3, 2020, due to the April 2, 2021 decision that disqualified the claimant for regular benefits in connection with the able and available determination. The reference 02 decision included a June 17, 2022 deadline for appeal.

On June 10, 2022, the claimant drafted and mailed an appeal from the reference 02 overpayment decision. The claimant dated the appeal letter June 10, 2022. The postmark on the envelope is less than clear regarding the date of the month, but is most likely June 10, 2022. The Appeals Bureau received the appeal on June 14, 2022 and treated it as also a late appeal from the April 2, 2021 (reference 01) decision.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant. The representative shall promptly examine the claim and any protest, take the initiative to ascertain relevant information concerning the claim, and, on the basis of the facts found by the representative, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and its maximum duration, and whether any disqualification shall be imposed. The claimant has the burden of proving that the claimant meets the basic eligibility conditions of section 96.4. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to section 96.5, except as provided by this subsection. The claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence showing that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsections 10 and 11, and has the burden of proving that a voluntary quit pursuant to section 96.5, subsection 1, was for good cause attributable to the employer and that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraphs "a" through "h". Unless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision. If an administrative law judge affirms a decision of the representative, or the appeal board affirms a decision of the administrative law judge allowing benefits, the benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which is thereafter taken, but if the decision is finally reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid and this relief from charges shall apply to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The ten-day deadline for appeal begins to run on the date Workforce Development mails the decision to the parties. The "decision date" found in the upper right-hand portion of the Agency representative's decision, unless otherwise corrected immediately below that entry, is presumptive evidence of the date of mailing. Gaskins v. Unempl. Comp. Bd. of Rev., 429 A.2d 138 (Pa. Comm. 1981); Johnson v. Board of Adjustment, 239 N.W.2d 873, 92 A.L.R.3d 304 (Iowa 1976).

An appeal submitted by mail is deemed filed on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it was received, or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(1)(a). See also Messina v. IDJS, 341 N.W.2d 52 (Iowa 1983). An appeal submitted by any other means is deemed filed on the date it is received by the Unemployment Insurance Division of Iowa Workforce Development. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(1)(b).

The evidence in the record establishes that more than ten calendar days elapsed between the mailing date and the date this appeal was filed. The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott, 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). One question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

No submission shall be considered timely if the delay in filing was unreasonable, as determined by the division after considering the circumstances in the case. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(2)(c).

The evidence in the record establishes an untimely appeal from the April 2, 2021 (reference 01) decision. The evidence establishes that the claimant received the reference 01 decision in a timely manner, had a reasonable opportunity to file an appeal by the appeal deadline, but unreasonably delayed filing the appeal to June 10, 2022. The late filing of the appeal was not attributable to the Iowa Workforce Development error or misinformation or delay or other action of the United States Postal Service. There is not good cause to treat the late appeal as a timely appeal. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(2). Because the appeal was untimely, administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to disturb the reference 01 decision on appeal in the present matter. See Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979) and Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979).

DECISION:

The claimant's appeal from the April 2, 2021 (reference 01) decision was untimely. The decision that denied regular state benefits effective September 20, 2020, based on the deputy's conclusion the claimant requested and was granted a leave of absence, was voluntarily unemployed, and was not available for work within the meaning of the law, remains in effect.

The present decision does nothing to disturb the decision that allowed PUA benefits for the two - week period of September 20, 2020 through October 3, 2020.
