ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OC: 06/09/24
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.5 – Layoff from Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated June 25, 2024, (reference 01) that held claimant ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on July 16, 2024. Claimant's did not participate, but the appeal letter offered sufficient evidence. Employer participated by Sienna Fromatt, Human Resources Generalist. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

The issue in this matter is whether the claimant was laid off due to a lack of work?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: Claimant last worked for employer on June 7, 2024. Claimant was laid off from work by the employer on that date.

Claimant began working for employer as a full-time journeyman on April 29, 2024. Claimant was given access to employer's rules at the time of hire, and he received on the job training.

On June 7, 2024 claimant was notified that he was being laid off work because of a lack of work. He was sent home from work at that time, and has not been offered work since that date.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant was laid off due to a lack of work.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department. But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

A voluntary quitting means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer and requires an intention to terminate the employment.¹ A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention.² Claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer, or that another exception to the rule exists.³

Iowa Code section 96.5(2)a & d provide in pertinent part:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

2. Discharge for misconduct. If the department finds that the individual has been discharged for misconduct in connection with the individual's employment:

a. The disqualification shall continue until the individual has worked in and has been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times the individual's weekly benefit amount, provided the individual is otherwise eligible.

d. For the purposes of this subsection, "misconduct" means a deliberate act or omission by an employee that constitutes a material breach of the duties and obligations arising out of the employee's contract of employment. Misconduct is limited to conduct evincing such willful or wanton disregard of an employer's interest as is found in deliberate violation or disregard of the standards of behavior which the employer has the right to expect of employees, or in carelessness or negligence of such degree of recurrence as to manifest equal culpability, wrongful intent or evil design, or to show an intentional and substantial disregard of the employer's interests or of the employee's duties and obligation to the employer. Misconduct by an individual includes but is not limited to all of the following:

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.1(113)a provides:

Separations. All terminations of employment, generally classifiable as layoffs, quits, discharges, or other separations.

a. Layoffs. A layoff is a suspension from pay status initiated by the employer without prejudice to the worker for such reasons as: lack of orders, model changeover, termination of seasonal or temporary employment, inventory-taking, introduction of laborsaving devices, plant breakdown, shortage of materials; including temporarily furloughed employees and employees placed on unpaid vacations.

² Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980) and Peck v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 492 N.W.2d 438 (Iowa Ct. App. 1992).

³ Iowa Code § 96.6(2).

In this case, the claimant did not voluntarily quit and was not discharged from employment. The claimant was laid off due to lack of work as he had completed all services for the employer. As such, the June 7, 2024 separation from employment is not disqualifying and unemployment insurance benefits are allowed, provided the claimant remains otherwise eligible.

DECISION:

The June 25, 2024, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. Claimant was laid off due to lack of work on June 7, 2024 and the separation from employment is not disqualifying. Unemployment insurance benefits are allowed, provided the claimant remains otherwise eligible.
