Claimant: Appellant (4)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22 – Able & Available – Benefits Eligibility Conditions

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from the May 10, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that found claimant was not able to and available for work for the week ending April 9, 2023. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on June 6, 2023. Claimant, Chhuon Chhnath, participated personally. Employer, Amcor Flexible, did not participate. No exhibits were offered or admitted. Official notice was taken of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Whether claimant is able to and available for work.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant was hired February 28, 2015 as a full-time coater operator. The claimant has worked full-time since his hire date. On April 9, 2023 the claimant was laid off of work due to a machine closure. Approximately 12 employees in the claimant's department were laid off at that time. The claimant returned to work one week after his lay off. The claimant was able to and available for the duration of his one week lay-off.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that the claimant was able to and available for work the week beginning April 9, 2023 and ending April 15, 2023:

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(1) provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(1) Able to work. An individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood.

a. Illness, injury or pregnancy. Each case is decided upon an individual basis, recognizing that various work opportunities present different physical requirements. A statement from a medical practitioner is considered prima facie evidence of the physical ability of the individual to perform the work required. A pregnant individual must meet the same criteria for determining ableness as do all other individuals.

An individual claiming benefits has the burden of proof that he is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22.

Claimant was laid off work and able to work had work been open for him during the one week beginning April 9, 2023 and ending April 15, 2023. Accordingly, he is eligible for unemployment insurance benefits.

DECISION:

The May 10, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is modified in favor of the appellant. Claimant is able to and available for work the one week beginning April 9 and ending April 15, 2023. Benefits are allowed.
