ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 07/02/23
Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(6) – Appeal from the Statement of Charges

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On April 18, 2024, City of Tripoli (employer) filed an appeal from the statement of charges dated April 15, 2024, reference 01, for the first quarter of 2024. A hearing was held on May 3, 2024, pursuant to due notice. Kevin Buhrow (claimant) sent an email to the Appeals Bureau on May 3, 2024, indicating he would not be participating in the hearing because he did not file his unemployment insurance claim based on a separation from this employer. Employer participated through city clerk Cami Franzen. The department's Exhibits D1 through D4 were received. The administrative law judge took official notice of the claimant's unemployment insurance benefits records.

ISSUES:

Was the employer's protest timely?
Was the employer's appeal from the statement of charges timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant filed an initial claim for benefits effective July 2, 2023, after a separation from a different employer. The notice of claim was provided to employer in the SIDES system with an e-mail alert to the email address of record. The notice did not come back as undeliverable. The notice of claim contains a warning that employer protest response is due ten days from the initial notice date and gave a response deadline of July 17, 2023. Employer did not file a protest response to that notice of claim.

The next notice of claimant's claim for benefits was the receipt of the notice of reimbursable benefit charges mailed October 15, 2023, for the third quarter of 2023. Employer did not file an appeal of that notice. The next notice of the claimant's claim for benefits was the receipt of the notice of reimbursable benefit charges mailed April 15, 2024, for the first quarter of 2024. The employer filed its appeal of that notice on April 18, 2024.

Employer notes claimant worked as a volunteer firefighter; however, it reported wages for claimant during the fourth quarter of 2022.

The employer witness testified she did not become the city clerk until early 2024 so she was unaware why no response to the notice of claim or previous statement of charges was filed.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the employer did not file a timely protest to the notice of claim it received and it does not have appeal rights to the notice of reimbursable benefit charges.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Code section 96.7 provides, in relevant part:

Employer contributions and reimbursements.

7. Financing benefits paid to employees of governmental entities.

c. For purposes of this subsection, "governmental reimbursable employer" means an employer which makes payments to the department for the unemployment compensation fund in an amount equivalent to the regular and extended benefits paid, which are based on wages paid for services in the employ of the employer. Benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the base period employers in the inverse chronological order in which the employment of the individual occurred. However, the amount of benefits charged against an employer for a calendar quarter of the base period shall not exceed the amount of the individual's wage credits based upon employment with that employer during that quarter. At the end of each calendar quarter, the department shall bill each governmental reimbursable employer for benefits paid during that quarter. Payments by a governmental reimbursable employer shall be made in accordance with subsection 8, paragraph "b", subparagraphs (2) through (5).

8. Financing benefits paid to employees of nonprofit organizations.

...

b. Reimbursements for benefits paid in lieu of contributions shall be made in accordance with the following:

...

(4) The amount due specified in a bill from the department is conclusive unless, not later than fifteen days following the date the bill was mailed or otherwise delivered to the last known address of the nonprofit organization, the nonprofit organization files an application for redetermination with the department setting forth the grounds for the application. The department shall promptly review the amount due specified in the bill and shall issue a redetermination. The redetermination is conclusive on the nonprofit organization unless, not later than thirty days after the redetermination was mailed or otherwise delivered to the last known address of the nonprofit organization, the nonprofit organization files an appeal to the district court pursuant to subsection 5.

(5) The provisions for collection of contributions under section 96.14 are applicable to reimbursements for benefits paid in lieu of contributions.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.4 provides, in relevant part:

2. An appeal from an initial decision concerning the allowance or denial of benefits shall be filed, by mail, facsimile, or e-mail, online, or in person, not later than ten calendar days, as determined by the postmark or the date stamp after the decision was mailed to the party at its last-known address and shall state the following:

- a. The name, address and social security number of the claimant;
- b. A reference to the decision from which appeal is taken; and,
- c. The grounds upon which the appeal is based.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a contributory employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 30 days from the mailing date of the quarterly statement of benefit charges.

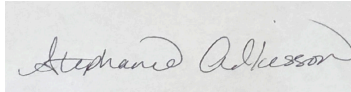

4. Also notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a reimbursable employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 15 days of the mailing date of the quarterly billing of benefit charges.

With regard to appeals from the notice of reimbursable benefits charges, Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6), which applies to contributory employers, provides guidance in the situation here, which deals with a reimbursable employer. It states that a contributory employer who did not receive notice of the claim may appeal to the department for a hearing to determine the eligibility of an individual to receive benefits following receipt of a statement of charges. While Iowa Code sections 96.7(7) and (8) which address reimbursable employers do not specifically state the reimbursable employers have appeal rights following the notice of reimbursable charges if they did not receive prior notice of the claim, Iowa Admin Code r. 871-26.4(4) allows for such an appeal.

When an employer receives a notice of claim and fails to protest in a timely manner, they do not have appeal rights to the notice of reimbursable benefit charges. In this case, the employer was sent the notice of claim and no longer has appeal rights to the notice of reimbursable benefit charges. The administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to modify the charges to the employer's account.

DECISION:

The April 15, 2024, reference 01, statement of charges for the first quarter of 2024 is affirmed. The employer did not timely protest the claimant's claim for benefits and the charges to the account are correct.
