Section 96.3-7 - Recovery of Overpayment of Benefits

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant appealed a representative's decision dated September 17, 2004, reference 03, that concluded she was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $3,380.12 as a result of a disqualification decision. After hearing notices were mailed to the claimant's last-known addresses of record, a telephone hearing was held on October 20, 2004. The claimant participated personally.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony of the witness and having considered all of the evidence in the record, finds that: The overpayment issue in this case was created by a redetermination of benefits.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code Section 96.3-7 provides:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The department in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to the overpayment.

If the department determines that an overpayment has been made, the charge for the overpayment against the employer's account shall be removed and the account shall be credited with an amount equal to the overpayment from the unemployment compensation trust fund and this credit shall include both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The administrative law judge concludes that the claimant was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $3,380.12 pursuant to Iowa Code Section 96.3-7 as the redetermination of benefits that created the overpayment decision has now been affirmed.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated September 17, 2004, reference 03, is affirmed. The claimant was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $3,380.12.
