REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code section 96.3(7) states:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits.

a. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The department in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to the overpayment.

Iowa Code section 96.5(5) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

5. Other compensation.

a. For any week with respect to which the individual is receiving or has received payment in the form of any of the following:

(1) Wages in lieu of notice, separation allowance, severance pay, or dismissal pay.

(2) Compensation for temporary disability under the workers' compensation law of any state or under a similar law of the United States.

(3) A governmental or other pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity, or any other similar periodic payment made under a plan maintained or contributed to by a base period or chargeable employer where, except for benefits under the federal Social Security Act or the federal Railroad Retirement Act of 1974 or the corresponding provisions of prior law, the plan's eligibility requirements or benefit payments are affected by the base period employment or the remuneration for the base period employment. However, this subparagraph shall only be applicable if the base period employer has made one hundred percent of the contribution to the plan.

b. Provided, that if the remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under this chapter, the individual is entitled to receive for the week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of the remuneration. Provided further, if benefits were paid for any week under this chapter for a period when benefits, remuneration or compensation under paragraph "a", subparagraph (1), (2), or (3), were paid on a retroactive basis for the same period, or any part thereof, the department shall recover the excess amount of benefits paid by the department for the period, and no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid. However, compensation for service-connected disabilities or compensation for accrued leave based on military service by the beneficiary with the armed forces of the United States, irrespective of the amount of the benefit, does not disqualify any individual otherwise qualified from any of the benefits contemplated herein. A deduction shall not be made from the amount of benefits payable for a week for individuals receiving federal social security pensions to take into account the individuals' contributions to the pension program.

Iowa Code section 96.3(3) provides:

3. Partial unemployment. An individual who is partially unemployed in any week as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", and who meets the conditions of eligibility for benefits shall be paid with respect to that week an amount equal to the individual's weekly benefit amount less that part of wages payable to the individual with respect to that week in excess of one-fourth of the individual's weekly benefit amount. The benefits shall be rounded to the lower multiple of one dollar.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.18 provides:

Wage-earnings limitation. An individual who is partially unemployed may earn weekly a sum equal to the individual's weekly benefit amount plus $15 before being disqualified for excessive earnings. If such individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus $15, the formula for wage deduction shall be a sum equal to the individual's weekly benefit amount less that part of wages, payable to the individual with respect to that week and rounded to the lower multiple of one dollar, in excess of one-fourth of the individual's weekly benefit amount.

For the ten-week period from July 4, 2020 through September 5, 2020 the claimant earned gross wages in excess of his WBA + $15.00. ($$432.00 + $15.00 = \447.00). The claimant was not entitled to any unemployment for those weeks because he was not temporarily or partially unemployed.

$ (wages) - $ (25% of WBA) = $ (wage deduction)
$ (WBA) - $ (wage deduction) = $ (partial weekly benefit amount)

The following chart reflects the benefits claimant received, the benefits claimant was entitled to and the resulting underpayment or overpayment:

Benefit Week Ending	Benefits Paid to Claimant	Benefits Claimant was Entitled to	Underpayment	Overpayment
07/04/20	225.00	0.00		$225.00
07/11/20	225.00	0.00		$225.00
07/18/20	225.00	0.00		$225.00
07/25/20	225.00	0.00		$225.00
08/01/20	225.00	0.00		$225.00
08/08/20	225.00	0.00		$225.00
08/15/20	225.00	0.00		$225.00
08/22/20	225.00	0.00		$225.00
08/29/20	225.00	0.00		$225.00
09/05/20	225.00	0.00		$225.00
			TOTAL	$2,250.00

Claimant was overpaid a total of $2,250.00 and is required to repay those benefits.

DECISION:

The August 1, 2022 (reference 03) decision is affirmed. Claimant was overpaid $2,250.00 in regular unemployment insurance benefits that just be repaid.
