APPEAL NO. 22A-UI-09219-B2-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 11/21/21
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5-1 – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated April 6, 2022, reference 01, which held claimant ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on May 24, 2022. Claimant participated. Employer participated by Doug Zumaris and Colin Debuysere.

ISSUE:

The issue in this matter is whether claimant quit for good cause attributable to employer.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: Claimant last worked for employer on March 14, 2022. Claimant voluntarily quit on March 14 when he was asked to follow the union contract with regard to hours actually worked during the day.

Claimant worked as a foreman for employer's company. As employer previously had difficulties tracking claimant's whereabouts during the day, GPS tracking devices were installed on all company vehicles. Claimant was found to not be on the job sites for approximately a third of the time while on the clock. Claimant was addressed about this situation on March 14, 2022, and had previously been addressed about the time usage matter. Employer said claimant needed to start working according to the union contract – which did not allow for paid lunch. Claimant was ending his days after working only 7 ½ hours when he was supposed to work 8 hours.

At the meeting on March 14, claimant was told that he needed to work a full day. Claimant's response was to say that he could just go ahead and retire. Claimant left the office, but called employer later that day saying he didn't intend to quit. Claimant then went back into the office the next day, but employer stated that they had already accepted his resignation.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

The administrative law judge holds that the evidence has failed to establish that claimant voluntarily quit for good cause attributable to employer when claimant terminated the employment relationship because he was asked to work a full workday as dictated by the union contract. Claimant attempted to rescind his quit later in the day, but employer chose not to accept claimant's offer to return to work, as is their prerogative.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated April 6, 2022, reference 01, is affirmed. Unemployment insurance benefits shall be withheld until claimant has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times claimant's weekly benefit amount, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
