ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 04/16/23
Claimant: Appellant (6)

Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a – Discharge for Misconduct
Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) – Default Decision

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Rafid Obaid, the claimant/appellant,¹ filed an appeal from the Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) May 22, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance (UI) decision. The decision denied Mr. Obaid REGULAR (state) UI benefits because IWD concluded that the employer discharged him from work on April 16, 2023 for not following instructions in the performance of his job. The Iowa Department of Inspections and Appeals UI Appeals Bureau mailed a notice of hearing to Mr. Obaid and the employer at each of their last known addresses of record for a telephone hearing scheduled for June 15, 2023. Mr. Obaid did not call the toll-free number listed on the hearing notice at the time the hearing was scheduled to begin. The employer was present and ready to begin at the time the hearing was scheduled to begin. Because Mr. Obaid filed the appeal but did not call in, the undersigned administrative law judge did not hold a hearing.

ISSUE:

Should Mr. Obaid's appeal be dismissed based on him not appearing and participating?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The parties were properly notified of the scheduled hearing for this appeal. Mr. Obaid did not call the toll-free number listed on the hearing notice at the time scheduled for this appeal hearing. He did not request a postponement of the hearing before the hearing date. He did not call in before the record was closed, 15 minutes after the hearing was scheduled to begin. No hearing was held.

The hearing notice lists the hearing date of June 15, 2023, and the hearing time as 1:00 p.m. Iowa time. The hearing notice also advises parties:

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

YOU MUST CALL the toll-free number...at the time of the hearing. You may call up to 5 minutes before the hearing. You are not the organizer – Do NOT press 2.

¹ Claimant is the person who filed the UI claim with IWD. Appellant is the person or employer who filed the appeal.

The administrative law judge WILL NOT call you for the hearing, you MUST call into the number provided above to participate. Failure to participate in the hearing may result in the dismissal of your appeal. Failure to participate in the hearing may result in dismissal of your appeal.

The record was left open for a grace period of 15 minutes after the hearing start time to give Mr. Obaid a reasonable opportunity to participate. This reasonable amount of time is appropriate because if a hearing were conducted with the non-appealing party alone it would have likely concluded in 15 minutes or less. Allowing additional time would prejudice the non-appealing party for appearing in a timely manner. Holding Mr. Obaid in default for not appearing and participating during a 15-minute window after the hearing start time is reasonable considering the time allocated for each appeal hearing. Allowing this additional time period is more than reasonable under the circumstances.

The UI decision had concluded that Mr. Obaid is not eligible for REGULAR (state) UI benefits based on how his job ended with this employer.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The Iowa Administrative Procedures Act at Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) provides in pertinent part:

If a party fails to appear or participate in a contested case proceeding after proper service of notice, the presiding officer may, if no adjournment is granted, enter a default decision or proceed with the hearing and make a decision in the absence of the party. ... If a decision is rendered against a party who failed to appear for the hearing and the presiding officer is timely requested by that party to vacate the decision for good cause, the time for initiating a further appeal is stayed pending a determination by the presiding officer to grant or deny the request. If adequate reasons are provided showing good cause for the party's failure to appear, the presiding officer shall vacate the decision and, after proper service of notice, conduct another evidentiary hearing. If adequate reasons are not provided showing good cause for the party's failure to appear, the presiding officer shall deny the motion to vacate.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 26.14(7) provides:

If a party has not responded to a notice of telephone hearing by providing the appeals bureau with the names and telephone numbers of the persons who are participating in the hearing by the scheduled starting time of the hearing or is not available at the telephone number provided, the presiding officer may proceed with the hearing. If the appealing party fails to provide a telephone number or is unavailable for the hearing, the presiding officer may decide the appealing party is in default and dismiss the appeal as provide in Iowa Code section 17A.12(3). The record may be reopened if the absent party makes a request in writing to reopen the hearing under subrule 26.8(3) and shows good cause for reopening the hearing.

a. If an absent party responds to the hearing notice while the hearing is in progress, the presiding officer shall pause to admit the party, summarize the hearing to that point, administer the oath, and resume the hearing.

b. If a party responds to the notice of hearing after the record has been closed and any party which has participated is no longer on the telephone line, the presiding officer shall not take the evidence of the late party.

c. Failure to read or follow the instructions on the notice of hearing shall not constitute good cause for reopening the record.

Due process requires notice and an opportunity to be heard, both of which were provided to the parties. The appellant is responsible for going forward with the case in a prompt and thoughtful manner. The appellant must be present at the start of the hearing to avoid a default judgment.² The hearing notice instructs the parties to call the toll-free number listed on hearing notice at the time the hearing is scheduled to begin.

The Iowa Supreme Court has held a default should not be set aside due to the appellant's negligence, carelessness, or inattention.³ Similarly, a default should not be set aside because the appellant has ignored clear requirements in the rules. Rather, a party must show it intended to proceed with the appeal and took steps to do so, but did not appear because of some misunderstanding, accident, mistake or excusable neglect. Mr. Obaid was not present at the start of the hearing. Per guidance from the United States Department of Labor (DOL), the undersigned gave Mr. Obaid additional time to call-in to allow for any misunderstandings or mistakes. But he did not call in for the hearing during the additional time allotted. Mr. Obaid is in default, his appeal is dismissed, and the IWD UI decision remains in force and effect.

DECISION:

The May 22, 2023 (reference 01) UI decision denying Mr. Obaid REGULAR (state) UI benefits remains in effect as he is in default and the appeal is DISMISSED.
