Claimant: Respondent (2)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(2) – Able & Available - Benefits Eligibility Conditions

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On December 12, 2019, the employer filed an appeal from the December 4, 2019, (reference 05) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits effective November 24, 2019, based on claimant's availability for and ability to work. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on December 27, 2019. Claimant participated personally and through witness Tina Wilson. Employer participated through store manager Eric McNeill. Claimant's Exhibit A was received. Employer's Exhibits 1 through 3 were received.

ISSUE:

Is the claimant able to and available for work?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant began working for employer in spring 2014. Claimant works as a full-time retail service specialist.

On October 24, 2019, attempted to take his own life and was hospitalized. Claimant missed his shift at work that day. On October 24, 2019, one of claimant's family member's spoke with store manager Eric McNeill and informed him of what occurred. McNeill spoke with other family members on October 25, 2019, and let them know he was going to put in paperwork so claimant could request a medical leave of absence. On October 25, 2019, claimant was discharged from the hospital with no restrictions.

Claimant did not want to go on medical leave, but based on information he received from family members, he believed it was a foregone conclusion.

On October 28, 2019, claimant contacted employer's human resource department. Claimant asked for help filing a workers' compensation claim as he attributed the situation to his work schedule. Claimant also informed the human resource representative that he was not seeking Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) leave. The representative informed claimant that if he was not approved for FMLA, he would be terminated for unexcused absences pursuant to employer's attendance policy.

On November 4, 2019, employer mailed claimant paperwork informing claimant that he had 15 days to provide medical documentation in order to be approved for Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) leave. Although claimant received the letter, he did not provide the documentation by the stated deadline.

On November 8, 2019, employer sent claimant a letter informing him that his claim for workers' compensation benefits had been denied and that he should submit his medical bills to his group health carrier.

On November 20, 2019, claimant had a fact finding interview with Iowa Workforce Development. Employer was also on the line. During the interview, claimant explained that he never asked for medical leave and wanted to return to work. Employer stated that he needed to provide a medical release and then he could return to work.

On November 21, 2019, claimant provided a doctor's note releasing him to return to work without restrictions. Claimant returned to work the same week, but only worked a partial week.

As of November 24, 2019, claimant returned to work on a full-time basis.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that the claimant is not able to work and available for work effective November 24, 2019.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(23) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(23) The claimant's availability for other work is unduly limited because such claimant is working to such a degree that removes the claimant from the labor market.

In this case, claimant is not considered able to and available for work effective November 24, 2019, because he has returned to his employer as a full-time employee. Therefore, he is no longer eligible for benefits effective November 24, 2019.

DECISION:

The December 4, 2019, (reference 05) decision is reversed. The claimant is not able to and available for work effective November 24, 2019. Benefits are denied after that date.
