ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

CARGILL MEAT SOLUTIONS CORP

Employer

OC: 04/03/11

Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a – Discharge for Misconduct
871 IAC 26.8(5) – Decision on the Record

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

An appeal was filed from an unemployment insurance decision dated April 13, 2012 (reference 09) that allowed benefits. A telephone hearing was scheduled for May 10, 2012. The appellant did not respond to the hearing notice instructions. Based on the appellant's failure to participate, the administrative file, and the law, the administrative law judge enters the following findings of fact, reasoning and conclusions of law, and decision.

ISSUE:

The issue is whether the representative's decision should be affirmed.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The parties were properly notified of the scheduled hearing on this appeal. The appellant failed to provide a telephone number at which a representative could be reached for the hearing and did not participate. The employer representative faxed a postponement request at 4:21 p.m. May 9, the day before the May 10 hearing scheduled for 9 a.m. The reason for the request was because the same employer witness (unnamed) was going to participate in another hearing with IWD at 9:30 a.m. (12A-UI-04390-DWT). The ALJ did not receive the request until shortly before the 9 a.m. hearing on May 10, called the party requesting the postponement, and was connected to his voice mail. The ALJ left a recorded message that the postponement request was denied because of the late receipt and because the ALJs will work together to coordinate hearings scheduled a half-hour apart to ensure full participation. The employer did not respond to the hearing notice for the 9:30 a.m. hearing, either. As of the writing of this decision, the employer's representative had not responded to the ALJ's voice mail message.

The administrative law judge has conducted a review of the available administrative file to determine whether the unemployment insurance decision should be affirmed.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge has carefully reviewed the available evidence in the record and concludes that the unemployment insurance decision previously entered in this case is correct and should be affirmed.

871 IAC 26.8(3), (4) and (5) provide:

Withdrawals and postponements.

(3) If, due to emergency or other good cause, a party, having received due notice, is unable to attend a hearing or request postponement within the prescribed time, the presiding officer may, if no decision has been issued, reopen the record and, with notice to all parties, schedule another hearing. If a decision has been issued, the decision may be vacated upon the presiding officer's own motion or at the request of a party within 15 days after the mailing date of the decision and in the absence of an appeal to the employment appeal board of the department of inspections and appeals. If a decision is vacated, notice shall be given to all parties of a new hearing to be held and decided by another presiding officer. Once a decision has become final as provided by statute, the presiding officer has no jurisdiction to reopen the record or vacate the decision.

(4) A request to reopen a record or vacate a decision may be heard ex parte by the presiding officer. The granting or denial of such a request may be used as a grounds for appeal to the employment appeal board of the department of inspections and appeals upon the issuance of the presiding officer's final decision in the case.

(5) If good cause for postponement or reopening has not been shown, the presiding officer shall make a decision based upon whatever evidence is properly in the record.

Pursuant to the rule, the appellant must make a written request to the administrative law judge that the hearing be reopened within 15 days after the mailing date of this decision. The written request should be mailed to the administrative law judge at the address listed at the beginning of this decision and must explain the emergency or other good cause that prevented the appellant from participating in the hearing at its scheduled time.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated April 13, 2012 (reference 09) is affirmed. The representative's decision remains in effect.
