APPEAL 23A-UI-10237-CS-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 09/24/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code §96.5(1)- Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On October 30, 2023, the claimant/appellant filed an appeal from the October 25, 2023, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based on claimant voluntarily quitting on September 28, 2023 for personal reasons. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on November 15, 2023. Claimant participated. Employer participated through hearing representative, Melissa Hill. Human Resources Manager, Jo Ann Peterson, and Fast and Fresh Manager, Matthew Van Horn, testified on behalf of the employer.

ISSUE:

- I. Was the separation a layoff, discharge for misconduct, or voluntary quit without good cause?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant began working for employer on October 12, 202. Claimant last worked as a part-time Fast and Fresh Clerk. Claimant did not have a full-time employer or another regular employer.

On September 27, 2023, claimant notified her manager she may be moving and would no longer be able to work for the employer. Claimant was not sure where she would be living and thought she would be moving to Minnesota. Claimant did not request a transfer. Claimant last worked for the employer on September 28, 2023. Claimant was scheduled to work on September 30, 2023, but claimant notified the employer she could not work because she was moving. Continuing work was available for claimant after September 30, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(2) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(2) The claimant moved to a different locality.

Claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980).

In this case, claimant voluntarily quit her employment because of her housing situation. Claimant moved to a different locality and did not request a transfer. There was continuing work available to claimant if she had not quit her employment. While claimant's leaving may have been based upon good personal reasons, it was not for a good-cause reason attributable to the employer according to Iowa law. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The October 25, 2023, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. The claimant voluntarily left her employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as she has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times her weekly benefit amount, provided she is otherwise eligible.
