Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On January 17, 2023, the employer/appellant filed an appeal from the January 18, 2023, (reference 12) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits based on claimant being able to work. Benefits were allowed as of December 18, 2022. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on February 3, 2023. The hearing was held together with appeals 23A-UI-00464-CS-T; 23A-UI-00465-CS-T; 23A-UI-00466-CS-T; 23A-UI-00467-CS-T; 23A-UI-00468-CS-T; 23A-UI-00469-CS-T; 23A-UI-00470-CS-T; 23A-UI-00471-CS-T; 23A-UI-00472-CS-T; 23A-UI-00473-CS-T; and 23A-UI-00474-CS-T, and combined into one record. The employer participate through Kathleen Martin. Administrative notice was taken of the claimant's unemployment insurance benefits records, including DBIN-2.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant able to and available for work?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant was on a seasonal layoff by the employer in December 2022. Claimant is not restricting his ability to work. Claimant does not have a medical restriction limiting his ability to work. Claimant has transportation to work. Claimant has not been ill. Claimant has childcare available so he can work.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that the claimant is able to work and available for work effective December 18, 2022.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. a. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

b. Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter to the contrary, the department may establish by rule a process to waive or alter the work search requirements of this subsection for a claim for benefits if an individual has a reasonable expectation that the individual will be returning to employment and is attached to a regular job or industry or a member in good standing of a union therein eligible for referral for employment. To be considered attached to a regular job or industry, an individual must be on a short-term temporary layoff. If work is not available at the conclusion of the layoff period due to short-term circumstances beyond the employer's control, the employer may request an extension of the waiver or alteration for up to two weeks from the department. For purposes of this paragraph, "short-term temporary layoff" means a layoff period of sixteen weeks or less due to seasonal weather conditions that impact the ability to perform work related to highway construction, repair, or maintenance with a specific return-to-work date verified by the employer.

An individual claiming benefits has the burden of proof that he is be able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22.

Claimant is able and available for work but is on a seasonal layoff. Accordingly, he is eligible for unemployment insurance benefits.

DECISION:

The January 18, 2023, (reference 12) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. The claimant is able to work and available for work effective December 18, 2022. Benefits are allowed.
