APPEAL NO. 08A-UI-08165-N1

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 06/08/08 R: 12
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Section 96.3-7 – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant appealed the September 3, 2008, reference 03, decision that concluded the claimant was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $2,781.00 for nine weeks ending August 9, 2008 as the result of a disqualification decision. A telephone hearing was held on September 29, 2008, pursuant to due notice. The claimant participated in person.

ISSUE:

At issue is whether Ms. Haines was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The overpayment issue in this case was created by a disqualification decision that was issued by an administrative law judge on August 13, 2008. That decision was not appealed to the Employment Appeal Board and became final. Ms. Haines has received unemployment insurance benefits since filing a claim effective June 8, 2008 and did receive benefits in the amount of $2,781.00.

It is Ms. Haines position that she should not be required to repay the overpayment in unemployment insurance benefits as the claimant believed she received inaccurate information at the time that she filed her claim.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge concludes the claimant has been overpaid benefits for the period in question.

Iowa Code section 96.3-7, as amended in 2008, provides:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits.

a. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The department in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to the overpayment.

b. (1) If the department determines that an overpayment has been made, the charge for the overpayment against the employer's account shall be removed and the account shall be credited with an amount equal to the overpayment from the unemployment compensation trust fund and this credit shall include both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5. However, provided the benefits were not received as the result of fraud or willful misrepresentation by the individual, benefits shall not be recovered from an individual if the employer did not participate in the initial determination to award benefits pursuant to section 96.6, subsection 2, and an overpayment occurred because of a subsequent reversal on appeal regarding the issue of the individual's separation from employment. The employer shall not be charged with the benefits.

(2) An accounting firm, agent, unemployment insurance accounting firm, or other entity that represents an employer in unemployment claim matters and demonstrates a continuous pattern of failing to participate in the initial determinations to award benefits, as determined and defined by rule by the department, shall be denied permission by the department to represent any employers in unemployment insurance matters. This subparagraph does not apply to attorneys or counselors admitted to practice in the courts of this states pursuant to section 602.10101.

The overpayment in benefits in this case was a result of a disqualification decision issued by an administrative law judge on August 13, 2008. That decision was not appealed by Ms. Haines and became final. The claimant has been overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $2,781.00 pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.3-7 as the disqualification decision that created the overpayment has now become final.

DECISION:

The September 3, 2008, reference 03, decision is affirmed. The claimant has been overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $2,781.00.
