Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from the February 14, 2023 (reference 04) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits effective January 29, 2023 finding claimant was not able to and available for work due to surgery. Iowa Department of Inspections and Appeals properly notified the parties of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on March 6, 2023. Claimant participated personally. Iowa Workforce Development did not participate. No exhibits were admitted.

ISSUE:

Whether claimant is able to and available for work.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Claimant filed an initial claim for benefits effective January 29, 2023 when her full-time employment with the University of Dubuque ended. Claimant filed ongoing weekly claims between January 29, 2023 and February 25, 2023 and reported vacation pay received from the university and wages that she earned from her supplemental part-time employers. Claimant had no barriers to employment between January 29, 2023 and February 25, 2023.

Claimant had surgery on February 28, 2023. Claimant has not yet been released by her physician to return to work.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(1), (2) provide, in pertinent part:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(1) Able to work. An individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood.

(2) Available for work. The availability requirement is satisfied when an individual is willing, able, and ready to accept suitable work which the individual does not have good cause to refuse, that is, the individual is genuinely attached to the labor market. Since, under unemployment insurance laws, it is the availability of an individual that is required to be tested, the labor market must be described in terms of the individual. A labor market for an individual means a market for the type of service which the individual offers in the geographical area in which the individual offers the service. Market in that sense does not mean that job vacancies must exist; the purpose of unemployment insurance is to compensate for lack of job vacancies. It means only that the type of services which an individual is offering is generally performed in the geographical area in which the individual is offering the services.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(35) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(35) Where the claimant is not able to work and is under the care of a medical practitioner and has not been released as being able to work.

An individual claiming benefits has the burden of proof that she is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22.

Claimant had no barriers to employment between January 29, 2023 and February 25, 2023. Claimant was able to and available for work. Accordingly, benefits are allowed provided claimant is otherwise eligible.

Effective February 26, 2023, claimant was not able to work due to surgery and has not been released by her physician to return to work. Accordingly, benefits are denied effective February 26, 2023 and continuing until claimant establishes that she has been released by her physician and is otherwise able to and available for work.

DECISION:

The February 14, 2023 (reference 04) unemployment insurance decision is MODIFIED IN FAVOR OF APPELLANT. Claimant was able to and available for work between January 29, 2023 and February 25, 2023; benefits are allowed provided claimant is otherwise eligible. Claimant is not able to and available for work effective February 26, 2023 and continuing until she establishes that she is able to and available for work; benefits are denied effective February 26, 2023.
