OC: 08/23/20
Claimant: Respondent (1R)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(6) – Appeal from the Statement of Charges

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On July 21, 2022, Link Associates (employer) filed an appeal from the notice of reimbursable benefit charges dated July 15, 2022, reference 10, which listed reimbursable benefit charge information for the second quarter of 2022. A telephone hearing was held on November 17, 2022, pursuant to due notice. Vlandy E. Slueue (claimant) did not participate. Employer participated through human resources administrator Robin Stewart and corporate operations director Jay Bruns. The department's Exhibits D1 through D4 were received. Employer's Exhibits 1 – 4 were received. The administrative law judge took official notice of the claimant's unemployment insurance benefits records.

ISSUES:

Was the employer's protest timely?
Was the employer's appeal from the statement of charges timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant separated from employment on August 19, 2020, and filed a claim for benefits effective August 23, 2020. The notice of claim was mailed to employer's address of record on August 25, 2020. (Exhibit D-1). The deadline to file the notice of protest was on September 4, 2020. The employer received the notice of claim and emailed a protest to Iowa Workforce Development on September 3, 2020. On November 20, 2020, a reference 05 decision was mailed to employer notifying them claimant was not eligible for benefits and its account would not be charged. A notice of reimbursable benefit charges was mailed on July 15, 2022, for the second quarter of 2022. (Exhibit D-2). The employer filed its appeal of that notice of charges on July 21, 2022.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the employer did file a timely appeal to the statement of charges.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Another portion of this same Code section dealing with timeliness of an appeal from a representative's decision states that such an appeal must be filed within ten days after notification of that decision was mailed. In addressing an issue of timeliness of an appeal under that portion of this Code section, the Iowa Supreme Court held that this statute prescribing the time for notice of appeal clearly limits the time to do so, and that compliance with the appeal notice provision is mandatory and jurisdictional. Beardslee v. Iowa Dept of Job Serv., 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979). The administrative law judge considers the reasoning and holding of that court in that decision to be controlling on this portion of that same Iowa Code section which deals with a time limit in which to file a protest after notification of the filing of the claim has been mailed.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.
 - a. (6) Within forty days after the close of each calendar quarter, the department shall notify each employer of the amount of benefits charged to the employer's account during that quarter. The notification shall show the name of each individual to whom benefits were paid, the individual's social security number, and the amount of benefits paid to the individual. An employer which has not been notified as provided in section 96.6, subsection 2, of the allowance of benefits to an individual, may within thirty days after the date of mailing of the notification appeal to the department for a hearing to determine the eligibility of the individual to receive benefits. The appeal shall be referred to an administrative law judge for hearing and the employer and the individual shall receive notice of the time and place of the hearing.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.4 provides, in relevant part:

2. An appeal from an initial decision concerning the allowance or denial of benefits shall be filed, by mail, facsimile, or e-mail, online, or in person, not later than ten calendar days, as determined by the postmark or the date stamp after the decision was mailed to the party at its last-known address and shall state the following:
 - a. The name, address and social security number of the claimant;
 - b. A reference to the decision from which appeal is taken; and,
 - c. The grounds upon which the appeal is based.
3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a contributory employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 30 days from the mailing date of the quarterly statement of benefit charges.

4. Also notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a reimbursable employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 15 days of the mailing date of the quarterly billing of benefit charges.

Employer filed a protest in a timely manner on September 3, 2020. Employer also timely filed an appeal of the second quarter of 2022 statement of charges. The agency has found that claimant is not eligible for benefits and employer should not be charged for benefits in its reference 05 decision. That decision has become final and has not been amended. Employer's next Statement of Charges should be credited accordingly.

DECISION:

The appeal of the July 15, 2022, statement of charges for charges in the second quarter of 2022 (reference 10) is timely. The statement of charges is affirmed, pending a credit regarding the remanded issue.

REMAND:

This matter is remanded to the Iowa Workforce Development Chargeback Unit for employer's account (069877) to be credited for all charges and interest relating to claimant appearing on its Statements of Charges in accordance with the agency's November 20, 2020 (reference 05) unemployment insurance decision.
