APPEAL NO: 11A-UI-12395-DWT

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILROAD

Employer

OC: 08/14/11

Claimant: Respondent (4)

Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a – Discharge
871 IAC 26.8(5) – Decision on the Record

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer appealed a representative's September 12, 2011 determination (reference 01) that held the claimant qualified to receive benefits and held the employer's account subject to charge because the claimant had been discharged for nondisqualifying reasons. A telephone hearing was held on October 12, 2011. The claimant participated in the hearing. The employer did not respond to the hearing notice or participate in the hearing. Based on the administrative file and the law, the following findings of fact, reasoning and conclusions of law and decision are entered.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The parties were properly notified of the scheduled hearing on this appeal. The employer failed to provide a telephone number at which the employer could be reached for the hearing. The employer did not participate in the hearing or request a postponement of the hearing as required by the hearing notice.

A careful review of the information in the administrative file has been conducted to determine whether the unemployment insurance decision should be affirmed.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The unemployment insurance rules provide that when a party who has received due notice is unable to attend a hearing or request postponement within the prescribed time due to emergency or other good cause, the presiding officer may, if no decision has been issued, reopen the record and schedule another hearing. If a decision has been issued, the decision may be vacated upon the presiding officer's own motion or at the request of a party within 15 days after the mailing date of the decision and in the absence of an appeal to the employment appeal board of the department of inspections and appeals. If a decision is vacated, notice shall be given to all parties of a new hearing to be held and decided by another presiding officer. Once a decision has become final as provided by statute, the presiding officer has no jurisdiction to reopen the record or vacate the decision. 871 IAC 26.8(3). The rules further provide that a request to reopen a record or vacate a decision may be heard ex parte by the presiding officer. The granting or denial of such a request may be used as a grounds for appeal to the employment appeal board of the department of inspections and appeals after the presiding officer has issued a final decision in the case. 871 IAC 26.8(4). Finally, if good cause for postponement or reopening has not been shown, the presiding officer shall make a decision based upon whatever evidence is properly in the record. 871 IAC 26.8(5).

The administrative law judge has carefully reviewed the information in the administrative file in the record and concludes that the unemployment insurance determination previously entered in this case is should be modified. The claimant is qualified to receive benefits, but the employer's account is not subject to charge. The Notice of Claim did not indicate the employer's account would be charged. The claimant's unemployment insurance claim is based on wages he earned from other employers.

Pursuant to the rule, the employer must make a written request to the administrative law judge that the hearing be reopened within 15 days after the mailing date of this decision. The written request should be mailed to the administrative law judge at the address listed at the beginning of this decision and must explain the emergency or other good cause that prevented the claimant from participating in the hearing at its scheduled time.

DECISION:

The representative's September 12, 2011 (reference 01) is modified in the employer's favor. The determination holding the claimant qualified to receive benefits as of August 14, 2011, remains in effect. The employer will not be charged for any benefits the claimant may receive. This decision will become final unless a written request establishing good cause to reopen the record is made to the administrative law judge within 15 days of the date of this decision.
