Iowa Code Section 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code Section 96.4(3) – Able & Available, Work Search Requirement

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On February 14, 2023, Travis Olson (claimant) filed a late appeal from the January 9, 2023 (reference 07) decision that denied benefits for the week that ended November 26, 2022, based on the deputy's conclusion that claimant did not meet the work search/reemployment activities requirements during that week and had been previously warned about the requirements. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on March 2, 2023. Claimant participated. There were six appeal numbers set for a consolidated hearing: 23A-UI-01516-JT-T, 23A-UI-01517-JT-T, 23A-UI-01518-JT-T, 23A-UI-01519-JT-T, 23A-UI-01520-JT-T, and 23A-UI-01521-JT-T. Exhibits A, B and C were received into evidence. The administrative law judge took official notice of the following Agency administrative records: the reference 02, 07, 08, 09, 12, 13 and 14 decisions, NMRO, DBRO, KFFV, and Appeals Bureau online appeal database.

ISSUE:

Whether the appeal was timely. Whether there is good cause to treat the appeal as timely.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

On January 9, 2023, Iowa Workforce Development mailed three work search disqualification decisions to the claimant's Cresco, Iowa address of record. The reference 07 decision denied benefits for the week that ended November 26, 2022. The reference 08 decision denied benefits for the week that ended December 3, 2022. The reference 09 decision denied benefits for the week that ended December 10, 2022. Each decision was based on the deputy's conclusion the claimant failed to meet the reemployment activities requirements during the week in question and had previously been warned about the requirements. Each of the decisions stated the decision would become final unless an appeal was postmarked by January 19, 2023 or was received by the Appeals Section by that date. Each decision included instructions for filing an appeal online, by fax or by mail. The claimant received all three decisions on January 12, 2023. The claimant did not file an appeal from any of the three decisions by the January 19, 2023 deadline. The claimant testified that he had submitted an online appeal on January 15, 2023. The claimant testified he has received a confirmation email in response to his appeals. At the time of the hearing, the claimant was able to locate confirmation emails pertaining to an appeal filed in November 2022, but unable to locate a confirmation email for January 15, 2023. At the time of the hearing, the administrative law judge had the Appeal Bureau intake Administrative Assistant review the online appeals submitted on January 15, 2023. The Administrative Assistant confirmed there was no online appeal from the claimant received on January 15, 2023.

On February 10, 2023, Iowa Workforce Development mailed the reference 12, 13 and 14 overpayment decisions to the claimant's address of record. Each of the overpayment decisions was prompted by the earlier work search disqualification decision pertaining to the respective week. The overpayment decisions included a February 20, 2023 deadline for appeal.

On February 14, 2023, the claimant completed and transmitted an online appeal from the reference 12 overpayment decision pertaining to the week that ended November 26, 2022. On February 15, 2023, the claimant completed and transmitted separate appeals from the reference 13 and 14 decisions pertaining respectively to the weeks ending December 3 and 10, 2022. The Appeals Bureau received the one appeal on February 14, 2023 and the two appeals on February 15, 2023. The Appeals Bureau treated the earliest appeal, the one received on February 14, 2023 for purposes of docketing an appeal from each of the six decisions in question.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant. The representative shall promptly examine the claim and any protest, take the initiative to ascertain relevant information concerning the claim, and, on the basis of the facts found by the representative, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and its maximum duration, and whether any disqualification shall be imposed. The claimant has the burden of proving that the claimant meets the basic eligibility conditions of section 96.4. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to section 96.5, except as provided by this subsection. The claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence showing that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsections 10 and 11, and has the burden of proving that a voluntary quit pursuant to section 96.5, subsection 1, was for good cause attributable to the employer and that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraphs "a" through "h". Unless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision. If an administrative law judge affirms a decision of the representative, or the appeal board affirms a decision of the administrative law judge allowing benefits, the benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which is thereafter taken, but if the decision is finally reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid and this relief from charges shall apply to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The ten-day deadline for appeal begins to run on the date Workforce Development mails the decision to the parties. The "decision date" found in the upper right-hand portion of the Agency representative's decision, unless otherwise corrected immediately below that entry, is presumptive evidence of the date of mailing. Gaskins v. Unempl. Comp. Bd. of Rev., 429 A.2d 138 (Pa. Comm. 1981); Johnson v. Board of Adjustment, 239 N.W.2d 873, 92 A.L.R.3d 304 (Iowa 1976).

An appeal submitted by mail is deemed filed on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it was received, or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(1)(a). See also Messina v. IDJS, 341 N.W.2d 52 (Iowa 1983). An appeal submitted by any other means is deemed filed on the date it is received by the Unemployment Insurance Division of Iowa Workforce Development. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(1)(b).

The evidence in the record establishes that more than ten calendar days elapsed between the mailing date and the date this appeal was filed. The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott, 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). One question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

No submission shall be considered timely if the delay in filing was unreasonable, as determined by the division after considering the circumstances in the case. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(2)(c).

The evidence in the record establishes an untimely appeal from the January 9, 2023 (reference 07) decision. The claimant received the decision in a timely manner, had a reasonable opportunity to file an appeal by the January 19, 2023 appeal deadline, but unreasonably delayed filing an appeal to February 14, 2023. The late filing of the appeal was not attributable to the Iowa Workforce Development error or misinformation or delay or other action of the United States Postal Service. There is not good cause to treat the late appeal as a timely appeal. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(2). Because the appeal was untimely, the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to disturb the decision from which the appellant appeals in the present matter. See Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979) and Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979).

DECISION:

The claimant's appeal from the January 9, 2023 (reference 07) decision was untimely. The decision that denied benefits for the week that ended November 26, 2022, based on the claimant's failure to meet the work search requirements that week after being warned, remains in effect.
