APPEAL 22A-UI-16188-ED-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 07/24/22
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting
Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a – Discharge for Misconduct

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed an appeal from the August 12, 2022, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based upon his voluntary quit after failing to report to work for three consecutive days without notifying the employer. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on September 7, 2022. The claimant, Lamont Coleman, participated and testified. The employer, Parco Ltd., participated through Ms. Veglahn.

ISSUE:

Did claimant voluntarily leave the employment with good cause attributable to the employer or did employer discharge the claimant for reasons related to job misconduct sufficient to warrant a denial of benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was hired on April 2, 2022 as a part-time cook. The claimant submitted a 2 week notice on May 15, 2022 to his supervisor that he was choosing another career path and he wanted to say thank you for the job opportunity and this is this was his final notice that May 21 would be his last day. The claimant did not go to work again after May 15, 2022.

The claimant stated he was going to get promoted and he was supposed to meet with the district manager about his promotion. However, the claimant quit before that could happen.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code §96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(4) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code § 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code § 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(4) The claimant was absent for three days without giving notice to employer in violation of company rule.

An employer is entitled to expect its employees to report to work as scheduled or to be notified when and why the employee is unable to report to work. Inasmuch as the claimant failed to report for work or notify the employer for three consecutive workdays in violation of the employer policy, the claimant is considered to have voluntarily left employment without good cause attributable to the employer.

DECISION:

The August 12, 2022, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. Claimant voluntarily left the employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as he is otherwise eligible.
